THE HEEL APPEAL FASHION SHOW

The Living Room will be hosting a fashion show as part of 'The Heel Appeal' campaign raising money for Manchester's local charity 'Mustard Tree'.

Donated shoes will be recycled to raise cash for 'Mustard Tree' – a Manchester based homeless charity working with the homeless and marginalised across the City (www.mustardtree.org.uk)

The Fashion show will feature designs from Moda in Pelle, Amilio Couture by Paris Taylor, Kurt Geiger at Selfridges Exchange Square and Each To Their Own with Christian Dior make-up.

Local celebrity Frank Sinclair will be your host for an evening of Champagne and canapés with entertainment from world championship qualifiers 'Centre Stage Dance Crew'.

WHERE: The Living Room 80 Deansgate

WHEN: 28th March from 7.30pm (show starts at 7.45pm)

Tickets are £5 per person with all proceeds going to charity and each guest is to bring along one pair of unwanted shoes to donate to 'The Heel Appeal Campaign'. As an extra special thank you the first 50 guests will receive a free goody bag.

All shoe donations made throughout March will receive 20% off total food bill. Terms and conditions apply.

Please RSVP to manchesterpa@thelivingroom or call 0161 832 0083 as places are limited.

For more information please contact Fiona Potts.
