Document link:	If you are reading a printed version of this document, you should check http://documents.manchester.ac.uk/display.aspx?DocID=15812 to ensure that you have the most up to date version.
Contact:	If you have any questions about this structure, please contact the programme administrator for Classics, Ancient History, Archaeology, and Egyptology: salc.courseunits@manchester.ac.uk

PLEASE NOTE:

When selecting your course units you must ensure you take:

- 120 credits overall (including any core courses)
- a minimum of 50 credits per semester
- a maximum of 70 credits per semester
- no more and no less credits than stated from each list
- 80 credits MUST be CAHE-coded courses.
- In the second and third years, all BA Classics students take the level of Advanced language (in their primary language) that follows their previous experience, plus the second-semester text-based thematic course designated for the relevant language (in 26/27 this is Ekphrasis for Latin and Dispute and Desire for Greek). They are encouraged, but are not required, to take the Advanced language unit in their second classical language, with or without its associated text-based thematic course.

HELPFUL HINT:

- ✓ The semester a course is taught in is identified by the last digit in the course code e.g. CAHE30220. A '0' identifies the course unit is taught over both semesters, a '1' indicates Semester 1 and '2' indicates Semester 2.
- ✓ To enrol on any of the course units outlined in your programme structure use the Self Service area of Campus Solutions.

1: You will be automatically enrolled onto the course units in LIST A by your Programme Administrator.
Note: students taking both languages in the third year may, in consultation with the programme director, replace the 40 credits of Dissertation with 40 credits from List C and/or D.
