Academic and Academic-Related Staff: Dismissal, Discipline, Grievance Procedures and Related Matters

Any proposals for the amendment of this Statute or its subsidiary Ordinances and Regulations may not be considered by the Board until negotiations with the appropriate recognised trade union(s) have taken place.

Part I: General

1. Application

   (a) This Statute applies to the following:

   (i) the members of the academic staff and academic-related staff (except for the President and Vice-Chancellor and those excluded from Part II by paragraph 5(b) below);

   (ii) such other members of staff or categories of staff of the University as are brought within its scope by the Board; and ‘member(s) of staff’ in this Statute means those members of the staff to whom this Statute applies.

   (b) This Statute will override any provision in any contract, term or condition of employment which is inconsistent with this Statute, whether dated before or after the commencement of this Statute, but:

   (i) it shall not affect the validity of any waiver under section 197 of the Employment Rights Act 1996, any compromise agreement under section
203 of the Employment Rights Act 1996, or any similar waiver or agreement permitted by law; and

(ii) it shall not preclude any member of staff deciding or agreeing to terminate employment with the University, whether by voluntary severance, early retirement or otherwise, on whatever terms have been agreed.

(c) Parts II to V of this Statute shall not apply to removal from an appointment, designated as such by the Board, to which a member of staff has been elected or appointed and which is distinct from that individual’s substantive post, where dismissal from the substantive post is not contemplated. The Board shall prescribe by Ordinance a procedure for handling such removals prior to the prescribed or normal termination date, which shall include the right to be heard by a panel and the right to appeal to a panel.

2. General principles

(a) This Statute and any Ordinances or Regulations made under it shall be applied and construed in every case to give effect to the following guiding principles:

(i) to ensure that members of staff have freedom (hereafter referred to as ‘academic freedom’) within the law to question and test received wisdom, and to put forward new ideas and controversial or unpopular opinions, without placing themselves in jeopardy of losing their jobs or privileges;

(ii) to enable the University to provide education, promote learning and engage in research efficiently and economically; and

(iii) to apply the principles of justice and fairness.

(b) Where, in any proceedings under this Statute, a member of staff invokes paragraph (a)(i) above, that claim shall be considered by the person(s) or panel designated to deal with the matter under the relevant Part of this Statute and, if it is found that any action has been taken against the member of staff that contravenes the principle of academic freedom, such person(s) or panel shall cancel that action and it shall be treated as invalid.

(c) Where there is any issue as to the meaning of ‘academic freedom’ in any proceedings under Parts II, III, IV, V and VI of this Statute, regard shall be had to Sections VI and VII of the Recommendation concerning the Status of Higher Education Teaching Personnel adopted by the General Conference of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation (UNESCO) in Paris on 11 November 1997.
(d) It is the general policy of the University to appoint members of staff on contracts of indefinite duration. The appointment of a member of staff on a limited-term contract is only to be made in the following circumstances:

(i) where a current member of staff (the ‘postholder’) holding a contract of indefinite duration is unable to continue to fulfil the duties of the post, either because he or she has been seconded to other duties for a limited period or has been granted leave of absence for a limited period, which may in either instance be subject to periodic review; or

(ii) where the duties of the member of staff are for a specific and determinable limited period, and where there are other necessary and objective circumstances for making categories or types of appointment on a limited-term basis that have been identified from time to time after meaningful consultations have taken place with staff representatives.

(e) Any reference in this Statute to a provision in an Act of Parliament, or to other recommendations or guidance to which reference is made, shall be taken to be a reference to that provision, recommendation, or guidance as it may have been amended or superseded from time to time.

3. Dismissal

(a) For the purpose of this Statute, ‘dismissal’ shall have the same meaning as in section 95 of the Employment Rights Act 1996.

(b) A member of staff may be dismissed if that dismissal is for a reason set out in section 98 of the Employment Rights Act 1996.

(c) (i) A dismissal by reason of redundancy shall be handled in accordance with Part II;

(ii) a dismissal for disciplinary reasons shall be handled in accordance with Part III;

(iii) a dismissal on health grounds shall be handled in accordance with Part IV; and

(iv) a dismissal on any other grounds shall be handled in accordance with Part V.
4. Hearing, appeal and grievance panels

   (a) Any panel established pursuant to paragraphs 8(a), 10(b)(iv) and (vii), 15(b), 17(b) and 19(e) of this Statute shall consist of three persons, none of whom shall previously have had any involvement with the case, at least one of whom shall be a lay member of the Board and one a member drawn from a list agreed from time to time by the Senate in the instance of a panel considering the case of a member of the academic or research staff, or by the Board in the instance of a panel considering the case of a member of the academic-related (excluding research) staff. Panels established to hear appeals against dismissals shall have as the third member an appropriately experienced person who is independent of the University.

   (b) Ordinances may provide for any relevant National Health Service or other relevant body to be represented on any panel established under this Statute to deal with a member of staff falling within paragraph 18(a) below and for the panel to be enlarged for this purpose.

   (c) At any panel within sub-paragraph (a) above, the member of staff shall be entitled to be represented or assisted by a workplace colleague or by a trade union representative.

   (d) Any panel within sub-paragraph (a) above shall give a reasoned decision in writing which shall be provided to the member of staff and reported to the Board.

Part II: Redundancy

5. Definition and Application

   (a) Dismissal by reason of redundancy for the purpose of this Part has the same meaning as in section 139 of the Employment Rights Act 1996.

   (b) The power to dismiss, and the procedures prescribed, under this Part shall not apply to those staff defined in sub-sections (3) to (6) of section 204 of the Education Reform Act 1988 [staff appointed prior to, and not promoted after, 20 November 1987], who shall for this purpose continue to be subject to such powers, if any, as applied to them prior to the introduction of the Statute made by the University Commissioners in the exercise of their powers under sections 203 and 204 of the Education Reform Act 1988.

6. Procedure for dismissal by reason of redundancy

   (a) The Board shall prescribe by Ordinance the procedures for dismissing members of staff on grounds of redundancy, other than by termination of a limited-term appointment (which shall be dealt with under paragraph 7), which shall include the following:
(i) a preliminary stage involving consultation with appropriate representatives in accordance with and to the extent required by section 188 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992 and discussion with the staff concerned;

(ii) a procedure which is fair and which allows each member of staff concerned, having been informed of the selection criteria to be employed, to make written and oral representations on his or her behalf;

(iii) provision for informing any member of staff dismissed under this Part of the reasons for the dismissal and, where selection has taken place, why he or she was selected; and

(iv) authorising the President and Vice-Chancellor or other person to dismiss any member of staff selected for dismissal under this Part and requiring reports of dismissals to be submitted to the Board.

(b) The procedures following the preliminary stage may be used at any particular time only after the Board has first determined that the circumstances are such that these procedures should be instituted. In making such determination, the Board shall be advised by a Committee, the title, constitution, duties and responsibilities of which shall be prescribed by Ordinance. Inter alia these shall include the review of the evidence provided by the President and Vice-Chancellor in support of a proposal that there should be dismissal(s) amongst the staff by reason of redundancy, and an investigation of any alternative strategies in a University-wide context for resolution of the circumstances leading to such proposal. In doing so, the Committee shall take into consideration a report on the process and the outcome of the preliminary stage of consultation undertaken pursuant to paragraph 6(a)(i) above and may, before formulating its advice to the Board, require further consultations to be undertaken and reported on. Subject to these requirements, the Committee shall establish its own modus operandi in a manner satisfactory to the Board.

7. Special provisions relating to dismissal by reason of redundancy arising from the termination of a limited-term appointment

(a) The President and Vice-Chancellor, or other person(s) designated by him or her, in every case where a limited-term appointment is due to terminate by virtue of a limiting event (as defined in section 1 of the Fixed-term Employees (Prevention of Less Favourable Treatment) Regulations 2002) shall review all the circumstances, including, where appropriate, the availability of the postholder to resume the duties of the appointment, and shall determine:

(i) whether, instead of terminating by virtue of the limiting event [the expiry of a specific term, or the completion of a particular task, or the occurrence or non-occurrence of any other specific event], the limited-term appointment should be extended, or an appointment of indefinite duration should be offered; or

(ii) in circumstances where there has been more than one limited-term appointment within a continuous period of employment such that the provisions of the Fixed-term Employees (Prevention of Less Favourable Treatment) Regulations 2002 are applicable, instead of the appointment terminating by virtue of the limiting event, whether there are objective and justifiable reasons for further extending the appointment, or whether an appointment of indefinite duration should be offered;

(iii) whether there are opportunities for the redeployment of the member of staff to other appropriate duties in the University.

(b) A member of staff whose limited-term appointment is to terminate following the completion of the procedure set out at paragraph 7(a)(i) above shall be given full reasons for the decision and shall be entitled to appeal against such decision to a panel as provided for in paragraph 8(a). The panel, whose decision shall be final, shall consider whether the reasons advanced in support of the decision are reasonable and supportable.

(c) In the case of a member of staff whose limited-term appointment has been deemed by the Board to be one of indefinite duration by the application of the Fixed-term Employees (Prevention of Less Favourable Treatment) Regulations 2002, and that such appointment is to terminate following the completion of the procedure set out at paragraph 7(a)(ii) above, the proposal for dismissal by reason of redundancy shall be considered according to the procedures set out at paragraph 6.

8. Appeal against dismissal by reason of redundancy

(a) The Ordinances shall include provision for an appeal to a panel by a member of staff who has been given notice of dismissal under this Part.

(b) The panel shall be entitled to review all aspects of the matter other than, where applicable, the Board’s determination under paragraph 6(b) above that the procedures set out in paragraph 6(a) that follow the preliminary stage should be instituted.

(c) The panel shall have the power to reach a final decision on the matter, or to remit the matter for further consideration by the body whose decision is being appealed against.
Part III: Disciplinary Procedures

9. Grounds for disciplinary action

Disciplinary action under this Part may be taken, and where found to be appropriate a penalty imposed, in respect of the following:

(a) conduct amounting to a criminal offence, whether or not there has been a prosecution and conviction, of a kind that is judged in all the circumstances to impact adversely on the member of staff’s employment in the University;

(b) refusal, neglect or failure to perform some or all of the duties or to comply with some or all of the conditions attaching to the post, or performing those duties or complying with those conditions in an unsatisfactory or inadequate manner;

(c) conduct of a kind judged to be inappropriate or unacceptable on the part of a holder of the post held by the member of staff, such as (but not confined to) the following:

(i) breach of any obligation or duty arising under any of the University’s regulations regarding financial matters, harassment, equal opportunities, public interest disclosure, health and safety, or data protection or any other rules, regulations or codes binding on the member of staff;

(ii) wilful damage to or improper use of University facilities, premises, property or equipment;

(iii) improper interference with or disruption of the activities of the University, or of any Member thereof or visitor thereto (other than any lawful industrial action);

(iv) violent, indecent, disorderly, threatening, abusive, insulting or harassing behaviour or language (whether written, spoken or in any other form);

(v) fraud, deceit, deception or dishonesty in relation to the University or any related activity, including research and examining;

(vi) action likely to cause injury or impair safety;

(vii) divulging information or material received that has been marked or otherwise indicated as being in confidence (unless the disclosure is permitted under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 or in accordance with the University’s Public Interest Disclosure Procedure).
10. Disciplinary procedures

The Board shall prescribe by Ordinance disciplinary procedures for members of staff, which shall provide:

(a) for less serious matters to be dealt with by warnings following a fair and appropriate procedure, and for a member of staff to be able to appeal against the imposition of a warning to a person designated by the President and Vice-Chancellor; and

(b) for dealing with more serious matters, which shall include provision for the following:

(i) fair and reasonable time limits for each stage;

(ii) investigating complaints and dismissing those found to be without substance;

(iii) suspension, on full pay, by the President and Vice-Chancellor pending an investigation or hearing where this is necessary;

(iv) a hearing by a panel, authorised by the President and Vice-Chancellor, at which the member of staff against whom the complaint has been made shall have been informed of the complaint, shall be entitled to be present, to hear the evidence, to call relevant witnesses, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses (but provision may be made for witnesses in appropriate cases to give their evidence behind a screen or from another room or place and for questions to be asked only by a representative);

(v) an appropriate range of penalties;

(vi) designating a member of staff’s conduct as constituting ‘gross misconduct’ such as to merit summary dismissal without notice;

(vii) a right to appeal against the finding of, or penalty imposed by, the panel, including a finding under sub-paragraph (vi) above. An appeal shall not take the form of a re-hearing of the evidence and witnesses may be called only with the appeal panel’s permission.

However, nothing in this Statute or the Ordinance aforementioned shall prevent cases of misconduct or unsatisfactory performance being resolved using informal procedures, rather than through the use of formal procedures provided for above.

11. Code of Practice

In drawing up the procedures, and in any Regulations made or action taken thereunder, regard shall be had to Section 1 of the Code of Practice on Disciplinary and Grievance Procedures issued in September 2000 by the Advisory, Conciliation and Arbitration Service (ACAS) and brought into effect by order of the Secretary of State under section 199 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consultation) Act 1992.

12. Dismissal

   (a) The Registrar, Secretary and Chief Operating Officer, or other designated officer, shall give effect to a decision of a panel that a member of staff should be dismissed:

   (i) where the panel has designated the conduct as ‘gross misconduct’ such as to merit summary dismissal pursuant to paragraph 10(b)(vi), the Registrar, Secretary and Chief Operating Officer shall forthwith dismiss the member of staff;

   (ii) in all other cases, the Registrar, Secretary and Chief Operating Officer shall issue the notice of dismissal or dismiss together with payment in lieu of notice.

   (b) Any dismissal or notice of dismissal shall be cancelled, withdrawn or modified if an appeal panel decides that the member of staff should not be dismissed or should only be dismissed with notice.

13. Relationship with Part IV

   The Ordinances shall make provision for dealing with a case in progress under this Part where it emerges that the member of staff’s conduct or performance may have been wholly or partly attributable to a medical condition, but any proceedings under this Part shall be valid even if they could have been brought under Part IV, and a member of staff may, subject to the Disability Discrimination Act 1995, be subject to penalty, including dismissal, under this Part notwithstanding the fact that his or her conduct may have been wholly or partly attributable to a medical condition.

14. Clinical staff

   Action under this Part or under Part IV may be taken against a member of staff falling within paragraph 18(a) below in respect of conduct or incapacity arising in connection with that member of staff’s clinical work or activities as if the work or the activities were performed in and for the University.

Part IV: Incapacity on Health Grounds

15. Dismissal on health grounds

   (a) The Board shall prescribe by Ordinance a procedure for dealing with staff, including dismissal, because of incapacity on health grounds, whether physical or mental.
(b) The procedure shall include a hearing by a panel, with a right of appeal to another panel, and both panels shall contain an appropriately medically qualified person.

(c) No member of staff may be dismissed whether under this Part or under Part III where that dismissal would contravene the Disability Discrimination Act 1995.

Part V: Other Dismissals

16. Probationary appointments

(a) This Part shall also apply to members of staff who have been appointed subject to review after a period of probationary service.

(b) The Board shall prescribe by Ordinance a procedure under which members of staff on probation shall be reviewed against the criteria established by the Board for the satisfactory completion of a probationary period and shall include provision for non-confirmation in post at the end of the probationary period if their performance is found to be deficient or for any other substantial reason or reasons they are judged unsuitable to be confirmed in post.

(c) The review referred to in sub-paragraph (b) above may encompass matters which, in other circumstances, would fall to be dealt with under Parts II, III or IV of this Statute.

(d) A member of staff whose probationary period is to terminate following the completion of the procedure set out at sub-paragraph (b) above shall be given full reasons for the decision and shall be entitled to have the decision reviewed by a panel in accordance with a procedure to be prescribed by Ordinance. The panel, whose decision shall be final, shall consider whether the reasons advanced in support of the decision are reasonable and supportable.

17. Dismissal on other grounds

(a) This paragraph covers dismissals on any ground falling within paragraph 3(b) other than those covered by Parts II, III, IV and paragraphs 16 and 18 of Part V of this Statute (i.e. ‘some other substantial reason of a kind such as to justify the dismissal of an employee holding the position which the employee held’ (Employment Rights Act 1996, section 98(1)(b); ‘the employee could not continue to work in the position which he held without contravention (either on his part or on that of his employer) of a duty or restriction imposed by or under an enactment’ (section 98 (2)(d)).

(b) Dismissals covered by sub-paragraph (a) above shall be handled in accordance with a procedure prescribed by Ordinance, which shall include the right to be heard by a panel and the right to appeal to a panel.
18. Clinical staff

(a) This paragraph applies to a member of staff who is required to engage in clinical work or activities and for that purpose to be registered with the General Medical or Dental Council or similar body and/or to have an honorary or substantive contract or status with a National Health Service Trust or similar body, and may by Ordinance be extended to other groups of staff in a similar situation.

(b) Where the registration, contract or status referred to in sub-paragraph (a) above is terminated, withdrawn or revoked, the President and Vice-Chancellor may, having first afforded an opportunity to the member of staff concerned to make representations, dismiss the member of staff concerned; and where the registration, contract or status is suspended, the President and Vice-Chancellor may suspend the member of staff from employment for so long as the registration, contract or status is suspended, that suspension from employment to be without pay where the registration, contract or status has been suspended as a substantive disciplinary measure.

Part VI: Grievance Procedures

19. Grievance Procedure

(a) The Board shall prescribe by Ordinance a Grievance Procedure for members of staff and in doing so shall have regard to Section 2 of the Code of Practice (as may be amended or replaced from time to time) referred to in paragraph 11 above.

(b) The Procedure shall apply to grievances by members of staff concerning their appointments or employment in relation to matters affecting themselves as individuals or their personal dealings or relationships with other staff of the University, other than those for which provision is made elsewhere in this Statute or in respect of the outcome of any matter dealt with under this Statute, or where the Board has prescribed other procedures, provided those other procedures are no less favourable to the individual than under the Grievance Procedure.

(c) The Procedure shall provide that consideration of a complaint under the Procedure may be deferred if other proceedings under this Statute concerning the individual and relevant to the substance of the grievance are pending or in progress.

(d) The Procedure shall provide for the fair and speedy resolution of complaints, informally wherever possible, and for the complainant to be entitled to be assisted by a workplace colleague or by a trade union representative at any hearings prior to that under sub-paragraph (e) below.

(e) The Procedure shall make provision for a member of staff who is dissatisfied with the outcome of a complaint to be able to appeal against such outcome to a Grievance Panel, unless the complaint has been ruled frivolous, vexatious or invalid in accordance with the Procedure.
Statute XIV

The Auditors

1. The Board shall from time to time appoint auditors who shall be members of a recognised supervisory body (with recognition determined in accordance with the Companies Act 2006) and eligible for appointment under the rules of that body.

2. The auditors shall hold office for a period determined by the Board consistent with prevailing external regulatory requirements and shall receive such remuneration as may be determined by the Board.

Arrangements for Faculties, including the number and designation, shall be prescribed by Ordinance.

   (b) Schools within a Faculty from amongst the academic disciplines assigned to it, for the purpose of providing for the effective and efficient organisation, management and delivery of the academic work of the University.

2. The number and designation of the Schools established within each Faculty shall be determined from time to time by the Board on the recommendation of the Senate. Further arrangements for Schools, including the constitution and powers of School Boards, shall be prescribed by Ordinance and shall include the power to discuss and declare an opinion on any matter relating to or impinging on the work of the School and to report such opinion to the Head of School, the Dean of Faculty, the Senate and/or the Board through the Registrar, Secretary and Chief Operating Officer. Each of the above shall have the duty to consider and report on any such opinion.
