

The University of Manchester

Degree Congregations

JULY 2014

At The University of Manchester, we focus on making things happen, turning enthusiasm into achievement and ground-breaking theory into cutting-edge practice.

Our newest graduates today join a prestigious hall of fame that includes 25 Nobel Prize winners among our current and former staff and students, and a worldwide community of more than 240,000 alumni who can be found holding top positions in every imaginable field.

Over a distinguished history spanning more than 180 years, our innovative minds have accomplished feats of global importance, including the birth of the modern computer, the splitting of the atom, and the foundation of modern-day economics.

Today, our students form a diverse and fascinating community, drawn from all corners of the globe, united in their goal to build a better future via a world-class educational experience of a lifetime.

We encourage our students to take charge of their future, finding a voice and forming opinions, getting involved and meeting fresh challenges, making the most of the multitude of resources and opportunities that we have to offer.

And we know, with their intelligence, inspiration and ambition, our new graduates will find they have what it takes to make their future happen.

Welcome

from the President and Vice-Chancellor

I welcome you all – graduands, family members and friends – to The University of Manchester for this degree congregation.

This is a time of celebration for all of us and I very much hope that you find it an enjoyable occasion. As each graduand is presented for conferment of their degree, the University shares with you all a great sense of pride in the award they have worked so hard to attain.

For those of you graduating today, these ceremonies mark not the end of your relationship with the University but the start of a new stage. It is my hope that the links between the University and you will grow ever stronger and I look forward to you becoming an active member of the University's alumni body.

I wish you every success for the future and that you all have a truly memorable day.

Professor Dame Nancy Rothwell
President and Vice-Chancellor

The Faculty of Engineering and Physical Sciences

The Faculty of Engineering and Physical Sciences is large and comprehensive with nine component schools: Chemical Engineering and Analytical Science; Chemistry; Computer Science; Earth, Atmospheric and Environmental Sciences; Electrical and Electronic Engineering; Materials; Mathematics; Mechanical, Aerospace and Civil Engineering; and Physics and Astronomy. Together they offer a diverse portfolio of research and teaching of the highest quality.

Many of the major advances of the 20th century began here, including the work by Rutherford leading to the splitting of the atom and the development of the world's first modern computer. Today research activities remain at the cutting-edge and the Faculty now generates around £75 million in research funding a year.

The quality, breadth and volume of research activity at the Faculty of Engineering and Physical Sciences is unrivalled. There are more than 70 specialist research centres and groups at the Faculty, each undertaking pioneering research into areas ranging from nuclear decommissioning and nanotechnology to artificial intelligence and aerospace.

Research is at the heart of The University of Manchester's Faculty of Engineering and Physical Sciences. The 2008 Research Assessment Exercise revealed outstanding results, with all of our departments demonstrating international or national excellence.

The Faculty of Humanities

The Faculty of Humanities is the largest of the University's four Faculties, with a world-leading reputation in research that spans academic areas as diverse as the arts, international development, modern languages, education, law, the social sciences, business and management. With a total income of around £190 million per annum, around 18,000 students and some 1,000 academic staff, it is equivalent to a medium-sized university in the UK.

Major institutes and centres include the Centre for New Writing, the Institute for Social Change, the Brooks World Poverty Institute, Humanitarian and Conflict Response Institute, the Manchester Institute for Innovation Research, the Research Institute for Cosmopolitan Cultures, the Centre for Chinese Studies, the Institute for Development Policy and Management, the Centre for Equity in Education and the Sustainable Consumption Institute.

In the 2008 Research Assessment Exercise, Humanities was behind only Oxford and Cambridge in the number of world-leading staff returned, classified as 4*. Of its activity, 22% was classed as world-leading and a further 40% as internationally excellent.

The Faculty of Life Sciences

The Faculty of Life Sciences is a world-class research establishment, recognised as an international site of excellence in terms of research power and importance in the latest Research Assessment Exercise.

It is home to more than 1,000 researchers, over 2,000 undergraduate students and has an annual budget in excess of £100 million.

Students benefit from modern facilities, innovative teaching techniques and the opportunity to be taught by leading experts from across the breadth of the life sciences. The highly interactive research and teaching environment allows the Faculty to conduct the highest quality research while maintaining an extensive range of undergraduate and graduate programmes as well as vocational training.

The Faculty's research fields include environmental biology, disease biology, neuroscience, genetics and zoology. There are also world-leading researchers studying vision science, bioethics and the history of science, technology and medicine.

Academics regularly have their work published in leading scientific journals and significant breakthroughs are consistently being made in the understanding of a range of diseases.

Rapid advances in molecular and structural biology, genomics and bioinformatics will ensure that the life sciences continue to dominate scientific discoveries in the 21st century.

The Faculty of Medical and Human Sciences

The Faculty of Medical and Human Sciences has a long and proud history of innovative teaching and ground breaking research, and is one of the largest faculties of clinical and health sciences in Europe. The Faculty has five Schools: Medicine, Dentistry, Pharmacy, Psychological Sciences, and Nursing, Midwifery and Social Work. It also has six Faculty research-focussed institutes: Brain Behaviour and Mental Health; Cancer Sciences, Cardiovascular Sciences; Human Development; Inflammation and Repair; and Population Health. The Faculty has strong interdisciplinary links with other Schools, Faculties and Institutes across the University, including Life Sciences, Engineering and Physical Sciences, Economic and Social Sciences, Education and the Cancer Research UK Manchester Institute. The School of Medicine traces its past to the first medical school established in England outside London, while the School of Nursing was the first British school to offer a degree in the subject; similarly, Manchester was the first university to award degrees in Pharmacy and was the first university in Britain to appoint a full-time professor of psychology; the first degree programme in dentistry was introduced in 1904. The Faculty's performance in the 2008 Research Assessment Exercise (RAE) reflects its strength across an entire range of biomedical and clinical research areas from laboratory-based investigations through to studies of the impact of discoveries on the health of the population. There is a strong organisational capability for undertaking cross-faculty teaching and research activity in partnership with the public sector and industry. For example, in around 450 community placements/GP practices and 17 district hospitals, the Faculty trains in excess of 450 doctors each year. Similarly, in partnership with the NHS and Health Education England, it provides continuing professional development for 60,000 pharmacy professionals in England.

Furthermore, teaching and research is spread over a wide area with major links to Central Manchester University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust, the Christie NHS Foundation Trust, Salford Royal NHS Foundation Trust, University Hospital of South Manchester NHS Foundation Trust, and Manchester Mental Health and Social Care Trust.

The University of Manchester Award for Outstanding Academic Achievement is awarded to the top students in each graduating year based solely on academic performance and consists of a certificate presented at graduation and a cheque for £1,000.

The prestigious award reflects the exceptional performance of the individual graduates during their time at The University of Manchester.

The 2014 Outstanding Alumni Award

Outstanding Alumnus Professor Sir Robert Lechler FRC

Robert Lechler qualified in medicine in Manchester in 1975. He then spent four years as a junior doctor training in general medicine and nephrology, before embarking on a PhD in transplantation immunology at the Royal Postgraduate Medical School.

Following the PhD, he returned to full-time clinical work for two years and completed his scientific training at the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, USA. In 1986, he came back to the UK to take up a post as a senior lecturer at the Royal Postgraduate Medical School, becoming head of the Department of Immunology in 1994. He moved to Imperial College Faculty of Medicine as Dean of Hammersmith Campus in 2001 and was subsequently appointed head of the Division of Medicine in 2003.

Robert became Dean of King's College School of Medicine in 2004. The following year he succeeded Professor Sir Graeme Catto as Vice-Principal (Health) in charge of the five Health Schools of King's. Robert was also Deputy Chair of Guy's and St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust from 2004-2009. He was appointed as Executive Director of King's Health Partners in June 2009.

Robert's research interests revolve around transplantation tolerance: how to persuade the immune system to "tolerate" the foreign organ, while retaining full capability to fight off infections and cancer. He is Chair of the Clinical Trials Expert Advisory Group, as well as a member of the Academy of Medical Sciences, Medical Schools Council. He also heads a leadership giving fund, the Medical Circle, which raises money for medical research. In 2012, Robert received a knighthood in the Queen's Birthday Honours for services to academic medicine.

The 2014 Outstanding Alumni Award

Outstanding Alumna
Professor Jean M. Johnson
MTh, BD, BA, BSc,
CCChem, FRSC

Jean Johnson's 47 years of success in chemistry in the UK and overseas almost didn't happen. At 16 years of age the gender prejudices of the time meant Jean was discouraged from pursuing her love of chemistry at A-level by well-meaning family and friends. She didn't give up her dream, though, studying A-levels part-time and then successfully applying to study chemistry, from which she graduated in 1966.

After university Jean moved into teaching, achieving headships at two prestigious girls' schools in the UK, inspecting science and mathematics in post-16 education, as well as becoming chief examiner for A-level chemistry and principal examiner for several other papers. Jean is now a Chartered Chemist and has been a Fellow of the Royal Society of Chemistry since 1980, 10 years after she first became an Associate Member.

It is in Africa, however, as a champion of education for the underprivileged, that Jean has made the biggest difference to improving opportunities for others. A volunteer in East Africa for a decade, Jean has made around 25 visits to run courses for chemistry teachers and students, in Rwanda, Ethiopia and particularly Uganda. She has raised money for new laboratories and libraries, equipped with donated books and equipment collected, packed and sent out by Jean, at her own expense. In 2013, she raised funds to build a new primary school near Congo and is working with an adjacent secondary school to provide A-level science facilities, determined to continue her work empowering impoverished children through education.

Outstanding Alumnus
Philip Chin

After graduating from the University of Manchester in 1982, Philip Chin began his career in the pharmaceutical industry, working in a variety of roles in sales, clinical research and marketing in the UK and internationally.

In 1991 Philip and his wife Joanna, also an alumna from The University of Manchester, founded Langland, an advertising agency specialising in healthcare communications.

As Chief Executive, Philip has led Langland to become a multi-million pound business, employing around 100 people. Under Philip's leadership, Langland has built a global reputation within the healthcare advertising world, by creating some of the most notable advertising campaigns in recent years for pharmaceutical companies such as Pfizer, Novartis, Merck and GlaxoSmithKline.

Langland is now recognised as the world's most creatively awarded healthcare advertising agency. In June of this year, Langland was named 'Agency of the Year' at the inaugural Cannes Lions Health Festival - the world's largest and most coveted healthcare communications awards.

Beyond his work in advertising, Philip is also patron of Sebastian's Action Trust, a charity based in Surrey, which provides a purpose-built holiday home and support for children with life-limiting illnesses and their families. The charity has recently been awarded the Queen's Award for Voluntary Service.

Alumni Association

Congratulations on your graduation day and welcome to the Manchester alumni family. Today you are joining a worldwide network of more than 270,000 former students. We hope that your graduation will be a transition to a new stage of a lifelong connection between you and your University.

We want you to get involved and realise all the benefits we continue to offer you. Visit your alumni homepage (www.manchester.ac.uk/alumni), become a Facebook fan (www.facebook.com/alumniuom), follow us on Twitter and Instagram (@AlumniUoM), browse photos of our campus and events on Flickr (www.flickr.com/manchesteralumni), and join our LinkedIn group (bit.ly/Li_AlumniUoM).

Your Alumni Association is supported by the University's Division of Development and Alumni Relations, providing you with a wide variety of opportunities for engagement, such as volunteering, networking events, social gatherings, career talks and resources, lectures by world-class academics and much more. With regular events in Manchester, London and all over the world, you can always keep in contact with your University and fellow alumni.

One of the ways you can help the next generation of students is by supporting Scholarship funds. In this way, alumni can support and enrich the teaching and learning of current students, contribute to outstanding University research programmes and help the University to continue to provide an excellent education for the students of today and tomorrow.

You'll also receive your annual alumni magazine, Your Manchester, which is dedicated to keeping you updated with University and alumni news. We'll send you a copy or you can read it online – look out for it every year. We also send a regular eNewsletter, in which many of our events are advertised and we feature topical news items.

Alumni who want to keep in touch find it very easy to do so. You can always chat to us through social media.

The alumni website, Your Manchester Online (www.manchester.ac.uk/yourmanchester), gives you access to everything you will need, including how to update your details online, as well as information about events, new research and alumni networks and groups across the globe.

You automatically become a full member of the Alumni Association on graduation but, to enjoy all of the benefits, register online for your Alumni Association membership card and access to online services. Go to www.manchester.ac.uk/yourmanchester and register using your student registration number (which is on your library card). This number is unique to you and will soon become your alumni number.

After you have registered you can enjoy the many alumni services the University offers, including the ever expanding: 'Your Manchester Extras'. You can get continued free use of the University library and also free remote access to many academic eJournals and reference material. The University's sports facilities are also still available to you at a preferential rate.

We have also negotiated dozens of special offers with various outlets on campus, as well as restaurants, hotels, theatres and commercial companies around Manchester (full details are available on Your Manchester Online).
