Terms and Conditions for Summer Vacation Accommodation at The University of Manchester

1. Bookings and Fees

1.1 Any University of Manchester Students with outstanding Licence fees will not be accepted for vacation residence unless the whole account is settled in full and prior to the commencement of the planned stay. Minimum booking periods apply. Please check each hall for the minimum booking period.

1.2 Guests wishing to extend their stay are not guaranteed accommodation beyond their original booking dates. Keys to your room will be available from 2pm on the day your booking commences.

1.3 Every effort will be made to minimise disruption, but due to refurbishment works we cannot promise a totally quiet environment during the day. Please contact individual halls for confirmation of the possible work being carried out.

1.4 The following items are not provided as standard: Bedding Packs/Bed Linen, Cooking Utensils and Crockery. A limited stock of Single Bedding Packs are available for purchase from the Hall Administration Office at a cost of £20.00. Kitchens, Bathrooms, Corridors and Communal areas are cleaned weekly, but you are responsible for cleaning your own room, rubbish and removal, recycling and for washing your pots/crockery.

1.5 No rooms will be reserved or guaranteed until the booking process has been completed and full payment is received by The University of Manchester.

1.6 A minimum of 72 hours (3 working days) is required in order to administer booking requests. No "same-day" bookings will be accepted.

1.7 No refund of accommodation fees will be given in the event of non-arrival of the student, student arriving later or leaving earlier than the period booked.

1.8 You are entitled to a refund of fees up to 7 days from the date the booking is made. No refund will be given after this time.

1.9 For students who have been offered and who have accepted accommodation in a University of Manchester residence for the following academic year (September 2020 to June/July/September 2021) every effort will be made to accommodate those students until they are able to transfer to their own hall, but this is not guaranteed.

1.10 Students MUST inform the hall of residence if they intend to arrive out of office hours (Monday – Friday, 9am – 5pm). The halls of residence cannot guarantee out of hours admission on arrival if the time has not been confirmed.

1.11 The University of Manchester does not guarantee summer university hall accommodation. If we cannot arrange Summer University Hall accommodation students must arrange their own accommodation.

1.12 Keys must be returned to the campus reception by 10am on the last date of the booking otherwise you will be liable for a daily excess charge of the nightly rate.

1.13 After your departure the University accepts no responsibility for forwarding your mail, and any mail received will be returned to sender.

1.14 We have the right to terminate this Agreement if:

1.15.1 you are in serious breach of any of these terms and conditions; or

Appendix 1
Code of Conduct for living in University of Manchester Managed Halls of Residence

Living together & your safety
Within halls it is essential that residents (and their guests) adopt a considerate attitude towards other residents. The sole purpose of this code of conduct is to ensure a safe enjoyable and hospitable environment in which residents may live and study in comfort.

Noise and Other Disturbances
Requests for quiet from fellow residents will be treated seriously. Your hall of residence ResLife team will investigate any complaints concerning noise, misbehaviour and nuisance. Behaviour which persistently disturbs other residents is considered unacceptable conduct.

Remember, if your stay in hall is being disturbed by other residents you have the right to seek help in resolving the issue through your hall of residence ResLife team.

Car Parking
There are a limited number of car parking spaces available please contact Campus Reception to arrange car parking. Please note there is no car parking available around Oak House.

SMOKING
The University has adopted a general ‘No Smoking’ policy; therefore all the halls are no smoking (including the use of E-cigarettes) in both bedrooms and common areas, smoking is also prohibited within 5m of the entrance to any building. Please note that the smoke detectors are very sensitive to cigarette smoke; if the fire detectors are set off in this way or tampered with, the resident will be liable for any charges or disciplinary measures brought about by this action. Charges will also be raised in respect of redecoration where there is evidence of smoking.

Damage to hall of residence property
You are responsible for any damage you cause and you will be charged accordingly.

Wilful, negligent or reckless damage to university property is considered unacceptable conduct.

Fire and your safety
It is both a serious disciplinary matter and a criminal offence to interfere with any fire safety equipment (including smoke alarms, extinguishers and fire doors). Penalties imposed by the University include fines and possible eviction.
Terms and Conditions for Summer Vacation Accommodation at The University of Manchester

Penalties as laid down by law include severe fines and terms of imprisonment.

Missing, damaged or used firefighting equipment must be reported immediately to hall staff.

All fire doors must be kept closed.

Tampering with the self-closing mechanism is a serious breach of fire safety regulations. If the mechanism is not working properly, report it to a member of staff immediately.

In the case of fire, your safety and the safety of others in the building will depend on the manner in which you observe basic rules for safety. Read the Fire Notice located in your study-bedroom and make sure you are familiar with escape routes and assembly points.

In order to minimize the risk of fire:

Do not:
- Leave the kitchen when cooking
- Leave cooking appliances switched on when you have finished with them
- Cook in your study room
- Cover heat and smoke detectors
- Interfere with fire mains, outlets and firefighting equipment
- Use anything that may produce a naked flame
- Use halogen lamps
- Use candles of any sort
- Obstruct any evacuation route

NOTE:
- Deep fat frying of any kind is not permitted

Do:
- Reduce the risk of accidents and fire turn off the power to equipment not in use.
- Keep evacuation routes free of obstructions at all times.

Wilful, negligent or reckless behaviour leading to the breach of statutory and university fire regulations will be considered unacceptable conduct.

Cleanliness & your safety

It is your responsibility to keep your study room and bathroom clean and tidy and along with other flat members to clean all communal areas of your flat or corridor.

In your kitchen – do:
- Wipe up all spillage immediately
- Wipe down all surfaces after use
- Sweep up all crumbs immediately
- Clean the cooker and hot plates after use
- Switch off all cooking appliances when you have finished with them
- Wipe the inside of the microwave each time after use
- Follow your hall procedures on the correct disposal and recycling of rubbish
- Defrost fridges and freezers and keep them clean inside

In any area – do not:
- Leave the kitchen when cooking
- Use metal, foil or melamine containers for microwave cooking and do not turn it on with nothing inside it
- Remove emergency lighting bulbs from their sockets or cause damage to light fittings.
- Prop the kitchen door open.
- Cover heat and smoke detectors or tamper with any fire-fighting, detection or safety equipment.
- Throw anything out of windows.
- Disengage the window restrictors on room windows.
- Use darts and dart boards anywhere on the site.
- Keep pets of any kind.
- Use sticky tape, blu-tack, drawing pins, or nails on walls; charges will be made for any damage to walls, woodwork or plaster.

Persistent failure to maintain decent standards of cleanliness and hygiene will be considered as unacceptable conduct.

UNACCEPTABLE CONDUCT MAY LEAD TO TERMINATION OF YOUR PERIOD OF RESIDENCE WITH IMMEDIATE EFFECT.
Appendix 2

Use of Personal Data
The information collected on our accommodation application form will be used solely for the following purposes:

• administering your application for accommodation
• managing your stay in our accommodation including keeping you informed of maintenance work and statutory testing
• ensuring the provision of internet services in halls of residence
