

Quatuor Danel Open House
Friday – Sunday, 23 – 25 January 2015
Application form

The University of Manchester and its internationally-renowned resident string quartet, Quatuor Danel, invite you to join in another fantastic music-making opportunity.

Everyone is welcome to participate in the event, which will feature coaching by individual members of the Quatuor Danel and Professor David Fanning, who will also take part in end-of-day discussions/workshops.

Taking place 23-25 January 2015, the event is offered to amateurs, professionals and students, and participants should all be in established ensembles, from duos upwards. We will endeavour to offer each group attending for two days or more a minimum of three coaching sessions with our resident experts.

The Martin Harris Centre for Music and Drama is pleased to offer attendees free tickets for the Friday evening concert, part of the Quatuor Danel's prestigious 2014-15 season, featuring music by Onslow, Schumann, and Shostakovich.

Please note that places are limited. In the event of over-subscription, preference may be given to Quatuor Danel season-ticket holders and to staff and students of the University of Manchester from subject-areas other than Music.

'It was a splendid weekend and brilliantly orchestrated.'

'The tuition was, as ever, brilliant, and the quality of the organisation meant that we were able to draw the most we could from the teaching.'

'I will long remember what an enjoyable and stimulating day it was...Congratulations on the efficient and friendly way in which we were looked after that day, which was such good value! Marvellous concert.'
