

MANCHESTER CAMERATA

FINALE, FLITER & FIGARO

SATURDAY 16 MAY, 7.30PM, THE BRIDGEWATER HALL, MANCHESTER

Exclusive Ticket Offer for the University of Manchester

Manchester Camerata's season finale fizzles under the baton of Gábor Takács-Nagy as the orchestra showcases some of the greatest pieces of chamber orchestra repertoire. Opening with Mozart's world-famous Marriage of Figaro Overture, a selection of Camerata Artists will then premiere RE:Figared, inspired by Figaro.

Exceptional pianist, Ingrid Fliter, performed a sell-out concert with Camerata back in 2012, and the orchestra welcomes her back for the season finale to perform Beethoven's dramatic Piano Concerto No.2. Mozart's final Symphony no.41 'Jupiter' is a fitting end to the Camerata season, perfectly capturing our Music Director, Gábor's ethos of 'music as spiritual medicine', it radiates pure sunshine and joy.

'Fliter's enthusiasm was infectious and from the extent of the applause she had clearly captivated the Manchester audience...'
