

MANCHESTER OPERA HOUSE

Friday 24th July – 7:30pm / Saturday 25th July – 2:30pm & 7:30pm

£15 Band A – Band C Seats

Following a phenomenal 2014 tour and sell-out run at the Edinburgh International Festival, four time Grammy Award-winning South African choral legends Ladysmith Black Mambazo join multi-award winning choreographer Mark Baldwin in this unique artistic collaboration.

Featuring world class current and former dancers from The Royal Ballet and Rambert, this critically acclaimed production embraces a fusion of South African and Western Cultures live on stage, blending the intricate rhythms and infectious harmonies of their native musical roots with live percussions, piano and strings. This is Zulu traditions with classical ballet and contemporary dance, performed by an exceptional company of 18 dancers and singers.
