

CHINA SCHOLARSHIP COUNCIL THE UNIVERSITY OF MANCHESTER

JOINT SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMME
FOR PHD STUDY 2017-2018

Up to nine scholarships will be supported per academic year, as follows:

Three PhD
tuition-fee waivers
for subjects within
the Faculty of Biology, Medicine and Health

Three PhD
tuition-fee waivers
for subjects within the Faculty of Engineering and Physical Sciences

Three PhD
tuition-fee waivers
for subjects within the Faculty of Humanities

Benefits

- For successful applicants, The University of Manchester will cover their full tuition fees for the period of the relevant programme as outlined in the offer letter (usually three years). China Scholarship Council will provide living allowances as prescribed from time to time by the Chinese Government, and will cover the round-trip international airfare for students from China to the United Kingdom, visa and passport application fees.
- The funding for each awardee will be up to 48 months.
- Up to nine scholarships will be supported per academic year as per the breakdown for each Faculty.

Please note:

The successful applicants will be responsible for arranging their Visa's in to the Country and The University of Manchester will not be responsible or liable in any way for any successful applicant's failure to obtain a visa or other requisite paperwork for entry and study in Manchester.

Criteria

- Candidates will be citizens and permanent residents of the People's Republic of China at the time of application; overseas Chinese students may be eligible for application subject to China Scholarship Council policy at the time; (China Scholarship Council publicises the policy in October or November every year).
- Successful candidates must return to China upon completion of their studies and/or research.
- Candidates must hold an unconditional offer letter from The University of Manchester. They must therefore fulfill the relevant academic entry requirements set by The University of Manchester, including a high level of English language proficiency, as outlined on the University's website: www.manchester.ac.uk/study/international/country-specific-information/china.
- Candidates should satisfy the selection criteria set out by CSC and should refer to the CSC website: www.csc.edu.cn.

Application and selection process

Please find full details on the China country page, from the university website:

www.manchester.ac.uk/study/international/country-specific-information/china

- Candidates should satisfy the selection criteria set out by CSC and should refer to the CSC website: www.csc.edu.cn

The University of Manchester contact for applications to this scholarship programme is:

Shemsah Farooq

International Officer

Student Recruitment and International Development Division

Email: shemsah.farooq@manchester.ac.uk