Archival history

This collection has been created by the Ahmed Iqbal Ullah Race Relations Resource Centre from a number of sources. The core of the collection is fascist and anti-fascist literature donated by Mike Luft in 2002. Mike was a prominent figure in anti-fascist activism in Greater Manchester, including as secretary of Oldham United Against Racism, a group formed in response to the fascist activity in the town that sparked rioting in the summer of 2001. Further material has been added from other sources, including the Commission for Racial Equality library (originally donated to the Resource Centre in 2008) and the family of Martin Bobker, a Jewish, anti-fascist activist and educator from Cheetham Hill in Manchester.

Scope and content

This collection consists of archive material relating to far right and fascist political parties, including propaganda both produced by, and in support of, the parties. The British Movement and the National Front feature heavily. The collection also contains anti-fascist materials and publications, which often directly engage with the fascist material of the same time.

System of arrangement

This archive is divided into two sub-collections and arranged into the following series:

Anti-Fascist:
1. Anti-Nazi League material
2. Factual Survey
3. YJAR (Young Jews Against Racialism)
4. Socialist Worker pamphlet
5. The Leveller
6. Black Perspective
7. Miscellaneous anti-fascist material
8. Searchlight
9. Patterns of Prejudice

Fascist:
1. League of St George publications
2. National Front
3. Choice
4. The National Socialist
5. Combat Press
6. Materials published by the Racial Preservation Society
7. ‘British Movement Publications’ and related materials
8. National Socialist White People’s Party related materials
9. British News
10. Spearhead
11. Miscellaneous fascist publications
12. Anti-immigration materials
13. American
14. Action
15. Annotated flyers
