

JUDITH WALKOWITZ

Professor Emerita History, Johns Hopkins University

Simon Visiting Professor, University of Manchester

Events April - May 2017

Professor Walkowitz is a leading international scholar and public intellectual in modern gender and cultural history. During her two-week visit to Manchester she will give the following lectures, seminars and masterclasses:

Tuesday 25 April. 17.00. Mansfield Cooper G21:
Lecture 'Feminism and Prostitution in the 1980s: A Tale of North and South'. CIDRAL/SALC/ Modern British History Research Network event. All welcome.

Thursday 27 April. 16.15. Samuel Alexander A215:
Seminar 'The Spatial Politics of Reading in the Archives: A Memoir'. History Research Seminar series (Modern British History Network event.). All welcome.

Wednesday 3 May, 10-12. Graduate School, Ellen Wilkinson, Room C1.18:
Masterclass for MA/ PhD students. (All MA PhD students in SALC are welcome, on first come first served basis. Please sign up with Prof. Frank Mort: frank.mort@manchester.ac.uk)

MANCHESTER
1824

The University of Manchester

History

CIDRAL

The Centre for Interdisciplinary
Research in the Arts and Languages