

Tutankhamun Exhibition Ticket & Overnight London Stay from only £95pp!!

Tickets for this must-see cultural event are expected to sell out very quickly so make sure you secure your visit to Tutankhamun: Treasures of the Golden Pharaoh including a stay at a central London hotel.

Marking the 100-year anniversary of the discovery of Tutankhamun's tomb; the priceless artefacts recovered from the Valley of the Kings in Egypt will visit London for the final time in 2019 & 2020.

A new permanent exhibition for the treasures is being constructed at the Grand Egyptian Museum in Cairo so this is the last time the contents of the tomb will visit the UK.

The exhibition will feature over 150 authentic tomb objects, many appearing outside of Egypt for the first time. The tomb's famous Guardian Statue is just one of the glittering items on display at The Saatchi Gallery from November 2019 until May 2020.
