

CIDRAL

Theory Intensives

2017-18

CIDRAL Theory Intensives are seminars dedicated to the work of major figures in the humanities.

1 Nov
2-4 P.M.

Professor Charles Forsdick (Liverpool)
Exoticism now: historical precedents, contemporary perspectives
Room 6.210, University Place

29 Nov
2-4 P.M.

Dr Tristan Burke (UoM)
Jacques Rancière: The Politics of Aesthetics
Room 6.210, University Place

25 Apr
10 A.M.
-12 P.M.

Dr Sarah Roddy (UoM)
Max Weber: Money and Religion: Revisiting the Protestant Ethic
Room A202, Samuel Alexander Building

School of Arts,
Languages and Cultures

The Centre for Interdisciplinary
Research in the Arts and Languages

For more information and to download readings:

tristan.burke@manchester.ac.uk
acl.manchester.ac.uk/cidral/twitter.com/cidral_uom