

Flexible Working Policy and Procedures

1. Purpose

- 1.1 This policy sets out the University of Manchester Conferences Ltd (UMC Ltd) (“the company”) approach to flexible working arrangements which is in accordance with the ACAS code of practice and guidance on handling requests to work flexibly in a reasonable manner.
- 1.2 The company recognises that flexible working can provide benefits to both the employee and the workplace, and aims to support staff where possible/practical to manage the balance between work and home life.

2. Scope

- 2.1 Under the Children and Families Act 2014, all employees have a statutory right to request a change to their contractual terms and conditions of employment to work flexibly subject to the eligibility conditions set out below.
- 2.2 Requests for flexible working may be for any reason and are not restricted to employees with family care commitments.
- 2.3 Requests for reasonable adjustments to working hours associated with ill health or disability may be dealt with under the Sickness and Absence Policy and Procedures in appropriate cases.

3. Eligibility

- 3.1 In order to make a request under this policy a member of staff must:
  - i. Be employed by UMC Ltd and therefore this policy does not include individuals who are agency workers
  - ii. Have worked at UMC Ltd continuously for 26 weeks at the date the application is made
  - iii. Not normally have made another statutory request under this policy in the preceding 12 month period.

4. Principles

- 4.1 An employee does not have a right to work flexibly but has a right to request to do so.
- 4.2 The company will try to accommodate requests where possible and may also, if appropriate, explore alternative flexible arrangements with the employee in order to reach a mutually beneficial arrangement.
- 4.3 All requests will be considered as quickly as possible. This will normally be within a calendar month of the line manager receiving the request. The whole process including any possible appeal against the decision must be conducted within a maximum period of 3 calendar months. This timescale may be extended if necessary with the agreement of both parties, for example to allow for a trial period if there are some concerns as to whether any new arrangements will work.
- 4.4 The term “flexible working” describes any working arrangements where the number of hours worked or the time or place that work is undertaken vary from the standard practice. This includes but is not limited to the following:
- i. A change to the number of hours of work
  - ii. A change to the times when an employee is required to work
  - iii. To work from home
  - iv. A reduction in the working week
  - v. A shorter working year
  - vi. A job share arrangement (see 4.5)
  - vii. Work patterns such as, annualised hours, compressed hours, flexitime, shift working, staggered hours and term time working.
- 4.5 Job-sharing is quite different from part time work where the employee is individually responsible for the work. Job-sharers share all of the responsibilities of the post which they hold jointly. Pay, leave, etc. are split pro rata to the hours each work. Ideally each job sharer should work exactly half time.

5. The Decision

- 5.1 Decisions will be based on whether or not a request can be granted on business grounds. The company's ability to provide an effective service will be paramount. The manager should always consult with Human Resources in cases where the application may be refused.
- 5.2 Not all working patterns or flexible working options will be suitable for all departments or units. It may also be difficult to accommodate flexible working requests from a number of employees in the same area.
- 5.3 Once a decision is reached the line manager will inform the employee of the outcome, which may be to:
- i. Agree to a new work pattern and a start date...
  - ii. ...or confirm a compromise agreed with the employee...
  - iii. ...or provide a clear business reason as to why the application cannot be accepted. This reason must be one of those listed below (see 6.2).
- 5.4 Decisions will be confirmed in writing (for details see application form and Guidance Notes for Managers)

6. Grounds for refusing a request

- 6.1 The line manager should carefully consider the advantages, possible costs and potential logistical implications of any request
- 6.2 An application may only be rejected for one of the following business reasons:
- a) The burden of any additional costs is unacceptable
  - b) An inability to reorganise work among existing staff
  - c) An inability to recruit additional staff
  - d) The company considers the change will have a detrimental impact on quality
  - e) The company considers the change would have a detrimental effect on its ability to meet customer, student or service demand
  - f) The company considers the change would have a detrimental impact on performance of the individual, the team or the business
  - g) There is insufficient work during the periods that the employee proposes to work
  - h) Where the requested changes will not fit in with planned structural changes

7. Terms and Conditions

- 7.1 Where a flexible working request which results in a reduction in working hours is approved, the employee's salary and benefits will be pro-rated to reflect the new working hours. In the case of the shorter working year, the pro-rated salary will be paid over a 12 month period. Annual leave will be pro rata to complete months worked.
- 7.2 A successful application will result in a permanent change to the employee's terms and conditions of employment. However, there may be occasions where it may be appropriate to agree a temporary change such as, an agreed trial period.
- 7.3 The company's ability to offer and continue a job share arrangement depends on finding a suitable job share partner through the normal recruitment processes.
- 7.4 If one partner in a job share arrangement leaves the company will offer the post as a whole time post to the remaining job sharer, or seek to recruit a replacement. If this is not possible and the requirement is for a whole time post, the company will make all reasonable efforts to redeploy the remaining job share partner.

8. How to apply

- 8.1 Applications should be put in writing to the line manager using form FW1 (attached).
- 8.2 On receipt of the written application the line manager will arrange to meet with the member of staff at a mutually convenient time and at the earliest opportunity. This will provide an opportunity to explore the desired work pattern in depth, and to discuss how this might be accommodated. It will also provide an opportunity to consider other alternative working patterns should there be problems in accommodating the desired work pattern outlined in the employee's application.
- 8.3 The employee may, if they wish, be accompanied by either their Trade Union representative or a work place colleague. The line manager may, if they wish, be accompanied by a representative from Human Resources.
- 8.4 Should the employee be unable to attend the meeting, a further meeting will be arranged. However if they fail to attend again without good reason then the application will be considered to be withdrawn and the employee will be informed of this decision.

9. Appeals Procedure

- 9.1 The employee may appeal the decision within 10 working days of the decision being notified to them. The grounds for the appeal should be put in writing to the UMC-designated HR (Human Resources) Partner.

- 9.2 A representative from the University's HR team (not previously involved with the application) will review the application. He/she may, as he/she feels necessary, request further information and/or evidence, and may wish to meet with the employee and/or the line manager. The employee may, if they so wish, be accompanied by either their Trade Union representative or a work place colleague at any meeting they are invited to attend.
- 9.3 The HR representative will review whether the line manager was justified in refusing the request.
- 9.4 The HR representative will notify the employee of the outcome of the appeal in writing within 20 working days of being asked to review the application. Their decision will be final.

10. Monitoring

Where changes in employment legislation occur that directly affect this policy and procedure these will be reflected within the updating of its contents at the earliest achievable time, following consultation with the UMC Board, and communication with UMC employees and any recognised trade unions. The policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment..

Application to Work Flexibly Form

It will help your line manager to consider your request if you provide as much information as you can about your desired working pattern.

Consider what effect your proposed change in working pattern will have both on the work that you do and on your colleagues, and how this change might be accommodated.
