

Living Campus Champions

As a living campus champion you will help to:

- Improve campus greenspace for people and nature
- Encourage people to connect with, enjoy and benefit from being outdoors and experiencing nature

As a living campus champion you will be expected to:

- Promote living campus awareness and action.
- Be aware of and support activities such as UMAPIT and Tree Trail.
- Share stories to highlight activities undertaken.

As a living campus champion you will have an option to:

- Record and monitor species.
- Maintain living campus gardens.
- Participate in practical conservation events.
- Become a living campus guardian.

Opportunities include:

Engagement, awareness and action

- Walk the Tree Trail.
- Lead/support/promote a tree trail walk.
- Share messages from the Environmental Sustainability (ES) team around living campus.
- Run/support/promote an event linked to a theme e.g. Earth Week, National Tree Week etc.
- Run/support/promote information sessions on certain topics e.g. air quality, biodiversity etc.
- Try walking, running or cycling to work and promote to colleagues.
- Join the Lunchtime Strollers and promote to colleagues.
- Join UMRun and promote to colleagues.
- Join UMBUG and promote to colleagues.
- Lead/support/promote walking meetings to colleagues.
- Volunteer on practical conservation projects.

Species monitoring and recording

- Use UMAPIT to register local wildlife.
- Lead/support/promote UMAPIT walks.
- Pollinator surveys.
- Tree surveys.

Living campus gardener

In designated living campus gardens:

- Support the development of biodiverse spaces.
- Take part in practical maintenance activities.
- Care for and tend to plants, shrubs and trees.

Living campus guardian

- Take charge of a living campus garden, overseeing volunteers, maintenance and development.

General

- Attend the Sustainability Seminar Series.
- Complete 10,000 Actions action plan and return to update it.
- Share stories with the ES team to highlight activities undertaken.

Use the living campus SharePoint for promotional materials, documents and other useful files.

Ensure you are on the living campus mailing list for the latest opportunities, ideas and information.

www.sustainability.manchester.ac.uk/livingcampus

es@manchester.ac.uk