Reporting is Important

- Patterns of crimes can command police resources so you should always report it
- By reporting crime when it happens to you, you may be able to prevent it happening to others. You will also help the police understand the extent of crime in your local area so they can respond to it better
- All of the campus security team are first aiders
- Students can also ring 0161 306 9966 if they or someone else is hurt

Phone snatches

Unattended items

How can you make yourself less of a target for crime?

- Phone snatches
- Unattended property theft
 - ask someone nearby to watch your belongings
 - if you want to reserve your space at the library, you could put some books from the shelves in your place – just put them back afterwards!
- Theft from insecure rooms
 - if someone follows you into your accommodation or university building and you don't think they should be there, report them to reception as soon as possible
 - lock your room if you are leaving it – even for just 5 minutes
 - shut your windows, close your curtains/ blinds
 - don't leave your valuables on display – put them under your bed covers, in a drawer

MOBILE PHONE THEFT ON CAMPUS

CAN BE PREVENTED

There's a wrong way to use
a mobile phone on the street

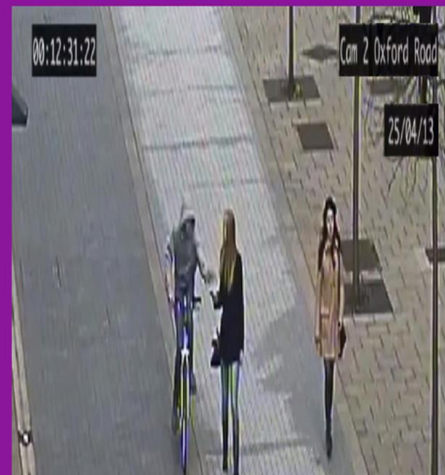

AND A BETTER WAY

Always be aware of what's going on around you when using your mobile phone

Frauds

What does the fraudster want?

YOUR MONEY

How are they going to try and get it?

By accessing your account or by having you transfer money to them

Frauds

What methods will they use?

Phone call, email or pop up on your laptop

What will they say?

They will try to frighten and or threaten you. They may say that you will be deported or imprisoned

Frauds

No legitimate agency or person will ever ask you for your bank account details or for you to make a transfer from your bank account as part of a phone call or by email.

Try not to let you yourself feel bullied.
Take your time and take advice

Frauds

THINK about who the caller is; do you know that they are legitimate?

Never share bank details with anyone on the phone. Never transfer money on the basis of information you are given over the phone. Do not type in numbers on your phone if someone ask you to do so

STOP. Do not talk about your personal information or bank details.
If you feel uncomfortable, hang up the phone.

BLOCK the telephone number from your phone.

REPORT it someone at The University of Manchester (for example, a ResLife Officer in your Hall, a Support Officer, or an Assistant in the Student Support Centre).

The University will work with Greater Manchester Police to stop the crime from happening again to anyone else.

Getting Home Safely

- Plan your route home
- Avoid taking short cuts
- Use the main roads – CCTV and street lighting
- Stay with your friends
- Keep valuables out of sight

Personal Safety

- Remember to keep your windows/doors locked when you are not at home
- Don't let anyone in to your room/home that you don't know
- Keep your personal belongings safe

Money

- Only carry ONE cash card
- Do not use cash machines at night. Plan ahead and get your money out during the day
- Do not carry large amounts of cash around with you- Open a bank account ASAP
- Be aware of any suspicious activity when using the cash machine- Distraction theft
