What support is available on campus?

- You will have an Academic Advisor (UG/PGT) or Supervisory team (PGR) for the duration of your studies.
- You can talk to them about academic or wellbeing issues.

- Your School also has a support office or other dedicated support staff to help you with any academic or personal issues you may be facing.
  - Bit.ly/uomschoolsupport

- A central support service covering a range of issues.
- If you don’t know where to go, or would rather speak to someone outside your School, they’re a good place to start.
Specialist support services

- If you have a Specific Learning Disability such as dyslexia, a mental health difficulty or a physical condition that might affect your studies.
- Offers adjustments relating to study, exams.

You can refer yourself to these services directly, or your School or Student Support and Advice can help you with a referral.
