

Safer care for patients with personality disorder (2018)

National Confidential Inquiry into Suicide and Safety in Mental Health (NCISH)

154

patients with personality disorder died by suicide in 2013

Our findings suggest...

Working with patients

Working with you to understand your traumatic experiences is important

Safer prescribing

You may be prescribed short-term supplies of psychotropic drugs

Involvement

Patients should be involved in staff training & peer support

Examination of services

An examination of personality disorder services is needed