The We Love Manchester Emergency Fund has raised c.£21.5 million. But when you consider that this has to be allocated between the families of the 22 people who tragically lost their lives, and more than 800 people who suffered physical and psychological injuries, and are scarred for life. So we want to do our best to raise as much money as possible for the fund before it closes. Manchester City Football club is kindly supporting this fundraising drive and all the players and the manager have each taken the time to sign a Snuggleboo Manchester Bee.

Although the fund was never intended as a permanent charity, but as an urgent response to people's immediate needs, we feel there is room to continue fundraising to create something similar to the Peace Centre in Warrington which was set up after the IRA bombings in 1993. There is a particular need to support the ongoing psychological trauma faced by the terror attack victims and their families, or simply be a place of respite for anyone facing life challenges.
