

CIDRAL Public Events | Spring 2019

Wed
13 Feb
1-3 P.M.

Key Ideas seminar: 'Karl Polanyi'

Led by Pat Devine (University of Manchester)

Room A215, Samuel Alexander Building

Tue
19 Feb
5-7 P.M.

Margaret Hillenbrand (University of Oxford)

Public Lecture: 'Public Secrecy in Contemporary China: Ducking the Firewall'

Samuel Alexander Lecture Theatre

Wed
20 Feb
1-3 P.M.

Key Ideas seminar: 'Waste, Precarity and the Artwork in China'

Led by Margaret Hillenbrand (University of Oxford)

Room A201, Samuel Alexander Building

Tue
26 Feb
5-7 P.M.

Sander Gilman (Emory University)

Public Lecture: 'Do the Humanities Make You a Better Person? A Foundational Myth About Higher Education'

Samuel Alexander Lecture Theatre

Wed
27 Feb
1-3 P.M.

Key Ideas seminar: 'The Humanities and Professional Education: Fables and Fallacy'

Led by Sander Gilman (Emory University)

Room 2.02, Mansfield Cooper Building

Wed
6 Mar
1-3 P.M.

Key Ideas seminar: 'On Amtiv Ghosh, The Great Derangement'

Led by Zoe Svendsen (University of Cambridge)

Room TBC

Tue
2 Apr
5-7 P.M.

Mark Payne (University of Chicago)

Public Lecture: 'Occupation and Mentation in Post-Apocalyptic Fiction'

Samuel Alexander Lecture Theatre

Wed
3 Apr
1-3 P.M.

Key Ideas seminar: 'Theorizing Catastrophe'

Led by Mark Payne (University of Chicago)

Room A215, Samuel Alexander Building

Tue
7 May
5-7 P.M.

Dominique Rogers (University of the Antilles)

Public Lecture: 'Between Racialization and Appropriation: Patterns of Belonging for Free People of Colour in Saint-Lucia, Martinique and French Saint-Domingue (17th-18th Century)'

Room TBC

Wed
8 May
1-3 P.M.

Key Ideas seminar (Title TBC)

Led by Dominique Rogers (University of the Antilles)

Room A116, Samuel Alexander Building

Wed
15 May
5-7.30 P.M.

CIDRAL Book Launch

Atrium, SALC Graduate School, Ellen Wilkinson Building