

天安門母親

The Mothers of Tiananmen

30th Anniversary of Tiananmen Massacre
1989-2019

5 June – 31 August 2019

Exhibition Opening Hours:
11:00am–5:00pm, Wed–Sat

PREVIEW: 4th June 6:00–8:30pm, vigil at 7:30pm

Workshops and talks in response to the exhibit will be held throughout July and August

Enquiries, workshop & event announcements:

ciwartists@gmail.com

 CentreIWA

 @CIWArtists

Centre for International Women Artists (CIWA)
St Peter's House, Manchester M13 9GH

The Mothers of Tiananmen exhibition responds directly to women's creative resistance and voice. This is framed by the 30th anniversary of the Tiananmen Square massacre. Many mothers lost children during the tragedy, and the families carry on fighting for justice.

Lead Artist and Co-Curator : Mei Yuk Wong

Exhibition Opening Times

5 June to 31 August 2019.

Wednesdays through Saturdays 11:00am to 5:00pm.

Free and open to the public.

Call for access on 07936 134047

Preview

Tuesday, 4th June 6pm to 8.30pm. Candlelit Vigil at 7:30pm.

Workshops and Talks in July and August.

Throughout July, we will host both hands-on workshops to create art in response to the exhibition, and talks from academics and citizens connected to the event and currently living in the UK.

August will feature responsive workshops led by CIWA artists.

For updates and announcements about these events, please email
ciwartists@gmail.com

You can also follow us on social media:

 CentreIWA

 @CIWArtists

The Centre for International Women Artists

involves and connects to all women artists and communities with a focus on those underrepresented within regional and national cultural and arts engagement.

creativemcr

[DWAN]

