Contact:	If you have any questions about this structure, please contact salc.courseunits@manchester.ac.uk , including 'Music' in your subject

Please note -

When selecting the course units you wish to take you must ensure you choose:

- Full-time students - 180 credits
Part-time students - 60 credits in the first year and 120 credits in the second year. MUSC60160 Dissertation is taught over both years, credited in the second year. The compulsory units MUSC60051, MUSC60061, MUSC60182 will be taken in Year 1.

Helpful hints –

- ✓ The semester a course is taught in is identified by the last digit in the course code. A zero identifies the course unit is taught over both semesters.
- ✓ Please check timetable details for courses you choose to ensure that you do not have any clashes!
- ✓ Please ensure that there is an equal balance of taught course credits (not including the dissertation) between semesters 1 and 2.
- ✓ Students proposing to use ethnographic research methods in their dissertations must take MUSC60032 Ethno/musicology in Action and use the methods taught in this course alongside any other relevant approaches.
- ✓ Detailed course unit information can be found at <https://www.manchester.ac.uk/study/masters/courses/list/10158/musm-music-musicology/>

 Enrolments onto the work placement module are different from other courses as students will be enrolled onto the course once they have been allocated a placement. The process for selecting a placement begins with an introductory session early in October (details to be announced). You will be given instructions on how to select a placement suitable for your programme from the list of placements arranged. NB. Email instructions will also be given on how to select a placement but it is strongly advised that you attend this session, if you are thinking of a work placement.

Once you have been allocated a placement you will be enrolled onto the course. In the meantime, you will need to choose and enrol on an alternative 30 credit module as a backup. Subsequently, when you are enrolled onto the course, you will be asked to confirm which 30 credit course you wish to drop for the placement module.

3: Free Choice - a maximum of 30 credits can be taken of free choice units.
