GB3228.76/1	Series	Abdul Malik Choudhury Bakht	Abdul Malik Choudhury Bakht more frequently known as Malik Bakht was born in Shillong, Assam in 1924. He was the eldest son in a family of six children. During the Second World War he worked as a translator for the Americans. In 1947 he came to the UK to work at the Pakistani High Commission. In 1947 he became a founder and trustee of Victoria Park Mosque, Manchester. Later he became the Seaman's Welfare Office for Cunard. After helping many to establish their own businesses in the UK he decided to set up his own business and began by flock printing ladies stockings. The second venture was a clothes shop, The Blouse Bar. The next business move was into the restaurant trade with the first being Shahi Restaurant in Blackpool and later Everest Restaurant in Manchester. Throughout his life he contributed his experience and time to the community and was always available to help mitigate / translate / solve problems linked with police, airport, courts, prisons or hospitals. As a result he was highly valued by the community which was shown at his funeral in 1977. For more information see the brief biography held at GB3228.76/1/5. For photographs of his wedding see GB3228.76/2/2.	1950-2018	6 items

GB3228.76/2	Series	Mrs Yvonne Bakht (nee) Parker	Yvonne Bakht (nee Parker), born Aug 1937, grew up in the Blackpool area before attending Blackpool Technical College and the Royal College of Art, London. As well as following her own career in textile design she married Malik Bakht in 1959 and supported him in his work, community work and business ventures. During the families stay in East Pakistan Yvonne (using the name Rabaya Malik) helped to set up a design centre and became the first qualified, independent female design consultant working in both East and West Pakistan. The family returned to the UK in 1972 and she resumed her career and support of the families restaurant business. After her husband died she moved to Coventry and helped to set up a new concept of workshop to promote the practice of crafts originating with minority communities in Coventry. In 1983 she returned to the North West and continued to develop her career in the creative arts, education, writing and illustrating. GB3228.76/5	Series	Everest Restaurant, Manchester	The Everest Restaurant opened following the closure of Shahi Restaurant in Blackpool, c.1960. Initially the couple rented just the ground floor of 63 Whitworth Street. Later in the 1960s the business expanded and rented the basement of the building where there was room for a three piece band and a small dance floor. Yvonne created the murals that decorated the restaurant and although did not work at the restaurant was instrumental in its operation undertaking the washing and ironing associated with a restaurant. The location of the restaurant near the Palace Theatre brought many show business people and Roy Castle became a friend of the couple. For more detail about the restaurant see GB3228.76/5/13.	1960-2018	39 items

No plan of the seating is available. Photograph: In the photograph two young girls give President Khan garlands of flowers and was used in the Manchester Evening News, 23 Nov 1966. Yvonne relates the following regarding this photograph 'Husband suggested that I printed the fabric for these dresses. I did. Batik. My sari, shalwar kameez (tunic and trousers) for elder girl and dress for the youngest. Silk for me and one girl and cotton for the youngest . . . family of the youngest gave her an adult hair style and were shocked by cotton. COTTON!!! (only) [cott]on an occasion like this! I was in trouble' 'There is a little story behind this photo: In Pakistan, dignitaries were garlanded with marigold flowers. None available in Manchester in November. A green velvet ribbon overlaid with a white cotton cord: circles made with artificial flower stamens, with added colour created from thin slices cut from liquorice allsorts (off Urmston Market). Each circle laminated and added to the ribbon. Everyone delighted - no one ever guessed!'	Nov 1966	3 items
