Travelling to the University

The University takes its social responsibility and rectorship with the local community very seriously in order to reduce its impact on the environment through its sustainability policy. Information on sustainable travel options is provided below and journey planning help is available at my.fgtn.com

RAIL
Manchester is well served by national and regional services.

Piccadilly Station is a 2 minute walk from north campus and is linked to south campus by the Staggonous Mag! (L bus 131) from Stop D, Oxford Street. Buses start from Piccadilly Rail Station at 05:31 and the last journey past the Hospital is Piccadilly Rail Station 2021, www.staggonousmagl.com/mag137

Oxford Road Station is within 10/15 min walking distance of both north and south campuses. The route between the station and the south campus is also served by a wide network of buses (see below).

Victoria Station is located on the north side of the city and the University can be accessed via a combination of tram and bus as shown on the map below. Please plan your journey at www.metrolink.co.uk

BUS
There are many direct services from Piccadilly Bus Station and within south Manchester.

From Piccadilly Bus Station to south campus, buses include 14, 41, 42, 43A, 43, 44, 131, 141, 144 and 155.

From Piccadilly Bus Station to Victoria Park and Mottram via Upper Brook Street, buses 10 and 115. The Staggonous Mag! 147 service runs from Piccadilly Rail Station, www.staggonousmagl.com/mag147

There are direct routes to south campus from Long, Stretford and Salford in the bus and 92 services and from Middleton on the 16. From other parts of the city a change of bus may be required. Please plan your journey at www.mcts.co.uk/ route-explorer

METROLINK TRAM
The closest tram stop to the new A6 is on the green TVI on the map above for stops.

CYCLING
There is a segregated cycle route along Oxford Road to south campus. The University provides numerous cycle parking facilities at key locations on both campuses. Please plan your cycling route at www.fgtn.com/cycling

WALKING
There are designated pedestrian routes on campus and much of Manchester is relatively easy to get around on foot. It is 2 mins from Piccadilly Rail Station to north campus and 10 mins to south campus. Please plan your walking route at www.fgtn.com/walking

Car
For self drive or to plan your route by car, use the postcode M13 9PL for south campus.

New traffic priorities are in place for Oxford Road. Only buses, hackney carriages, emergency vehicles and pupils in transit are able to access the route. Bryn Road traffic lights, seven days a week. General traffic heading into the city centre from Wilmslow Road must now turn right onto Etherington Road, continue to light at a junction adjacent Upper Brook Street. The University has several car parks with varying access restrictions and charges. More details on individual car parks is provided here for the disabled and for further details on car parks see estates, manchester.ac.uk/services/ operations/services/car-parking

From the AIRPORT
Manchester airport is approximately 10 miles south of the University. There are frequent trains to Manchester, www.nationalrail.co.uk

The 43 and 44 bus services also run from the airport to the University using www.fgtn.com/route-explorer A taxi fare is approximately £20.
