

Your time at the University of Manchester is about much more than getting your degree: University is also a great opportunity to try new things and meet new people. Whatever you think about trying, our evening events, running throughout orientation, will give you a flavour of life in Manchester. It is also a chance to meet some of the most interesting people at the university: other students!

THE WORLD QUIZ with live music: Jabez Clegg (Building 11), 7pm, Thursday and Saturday

Whether you're a future Secretary-General of the United Nations, or you don't know your Iceland from your Ireland, the World Quiz is a great place to make new friends and maybe even win a prize!

BARBECUE: International Society (Building 3), 4pm, Sunday
Enjoy a traditional British summer dining experience in the relaxed International Society garden. May or may not include rain. All meat is Halal. Tickets £6, including food, soft drinks, and entertainment. Family Friendly.

STREET DANCING: Students Union Club Academy (Building 12), 7pm, Saturday

If hip-hop and R'n'B is your style, why not come and try a bit of street dancing. Even if you've never heard of Beyoncé, our experienced dancer will show you all the moves, so just turn up and join in!

CEILIDH: Students Union Club Academy (Building 12), 7pm, Friday
A Ceilidh is a traditional Scottish event with folk music and formation dancing. All of the dances are explained before and during by an experienced caller, but getting it wrong is part of the fun! You are guaranteed to meet someone new, and get a little bit sweaty too. Kilt not required, but highly recommended.

KARAOKE: Jabez Clegg (Building 11), 7pm, Friday
Oasis, Joy Division, Morrissey ... and now YOU! Manchester's musical heritage is about to get even better as you sing your favourite tunes with a crowd of new friends. Alternatively, come along and enjoy watching others do the hard work. Lots of fun, and a great way to meet new people.

FILM AT FIVE: Students Union Council Chamber (Building 12), 5pm, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday
Shown in conjunction with the University Film Society, this selection of British classics gives a surprising insight into how the British see themselves:
Thursday - Hot Fuzz; Friday - James Bond: Goldeneye; Saturday - Wallace and Gromit; Sunday - Life in a Day
Please note: This is a venue change from the published guide.

TEA, COFFEE, AND LIGHT MUSIC: International Society (Building 3), from 7pm, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday
Unwind and chat over your new (or old) experiences in the relaxed surroundings of the International Society. Family friendly.

LAST NIGHT PARTY: Jabez Clegg (Building 11), 7pm, Sunday
All the best bits from the evening events rolled into one giant ball of AWESOME! Celebrate the end of Orientation and the start of Welcome Week with karaoke, magic tricks, live music, and lots and lots of dancing. Guaranteed to put a big smile on your face.
