

Elections to the Senate from 1 September 2012: Final Results

1. Further to the call for nominations in the Faculty of Engineering and Physical Sciences, the following are declared elected unopposed with effect from 1 September 2012 to 31 August 2015, there being no requirement for a ballot:

(4 places)

Professor Ian Cotton, School of Electrical and Electronic Engineering
Professor Peter Eccles, School of Mathematics
Dr Caroline Jay, School of Computer Science
Vacancy

2. Further to the call for nominations in the Faculty of Medical and Human Sciences, the following are declared elected unopposed with effect from 1 September 2012 to 31 August 2015, there being no requirement for a ballot:

(3 places)

Professor Leon Aarons, School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences*
Dr Sarah Herrick, School of Translational Medicine
Dr Philip Keeley, School of Nursing, Midwifery and Social Work

3. Further to the call for nominations in the Faculty of Humanities, the following are declared elected unopposed with effect from 1 September 2012 to 31 August 2015, there being no requirement for a ballot:

(4 places)

Professor Kersti Börjars, School of Languages, Linguistics & Cultures*
Professor Fiona Devine, School of Social Sciences*
Professor Maggie Gale, School of Arts, Histories & Cultures*
Dr Matthew Philpotts, School of Languages, Linguistics & Cultures *

4. A ballot was required within the Faculty of Life Sciences, in respect of which the persons listed below have been elected, with effect from 1 September 2012 to 31 August 2015:

(2 places)

Dr Reinmar Hager
Dr Andreas Prokop

Note “*” denotes a member re-elected

Will Spinks
Registrar, Secretary and COO
26 March 2012