

Welcome Week

Details of events organised for you during Welcome Week!

Welcome Week Fair

From Monday 17 September to Wednesday 19 September there will be a School of Arts, Languages & Cultures Welcome Week Fair in the North and South Foyers of the Samuel Alexander Building (see link to campus map below). There will be lots of information available about University services and facilities (eg. library, careers, sport) as well as more specific information relating to the School (eg. peer mentoring, societies). There will also be School Helpdesks so you can ask for help and advice.

MODERN LANGUAGE & BUSINESS AND MANAGEMENT (MLBM) TIMETABLE FOR WELCOME WEEK 2012-13

A series of events have also been organised for you during Welcome Week to introduce you to the discipline(s) and the School in which we are based. You will be meeting both academic and support staff during the week. Some of the events will be fun and sociable and you will find invaluable information on offer!

NB. Joint Hons students (ie students studying two subjects):

Please note that whilst we have tried to avoid timetable clashes between disciplines wherever possible, you may find that you have events at the same time. In this case, please ensure that you attend information sessions within your disciplines (ie discipline meetings, timetabling meetings etc.). If you are in any doubt as to which sessions to attend, please contact the Programme Administrator for advice.
