

RESEARCH GRANT 'BUY-OUT'

Research buy-outs: applicable to all fEC grants starting after 1 October 2021

Buy-outs funded by research council fEC grants, in which core staff time costs are included in the budget as 'Directly Allocated' (DA), are managed by the School in a way which balances the needs of departments to buy in replacement teaching and the costs to the School of administering and supporting grants.

1. Decisions on approval of buy-out funding will normally be taken by the HoS at the point of award, though HoDs may want to discuss the issue with the HoS prior to the submission of a bid. For this reason, it is very important that you discuss your plans with your HoD before you start writing your grant bid, so that s/he can both advise you and, if needed, discuss the matter with the HoS well in advance.
2. The School allocates fixed sums to cover the costs of teaching staff for buy-outs on fEC grants. This is applied on a pro rata basis depending on the role of the researcher (PI or Co-I) and the size of the grant/buy-out specific to the particular year. For details please see the chart below.*

Successful applicants will therefore receive significant alleviation from teaching and administration duties, but should bear in mind that the overall WAM workload already includes within it an allowance for research time.

3. Please note that the 'savings' made on grants are incorporated into the SALC budget, since the researchers remain on the School's Core baseline at full salary, and since the AHRC pays only 80% of the fEC value.
