Plan Code:	00060
Document link:	If you are reading a printed version of this document you should check http://documents.manchester.ac.uk/display.aspx?DocID=15758 to ensure that you have the most up to date version.
Contact:	If you have any questions about this structure, please contact the programme administrators for English Literature, American Studies and Creative Writing (SALC.courseunits@manchester.ac.uk).

Please note:

Course units offered within English Literature, American Studies and Creative Writing (EAC) are listed below. You have no compulsory course units at level 2. You must choose at least two course units from list A, and at least one from each of the other two lists, B and C. You are required to take courses from each of these in order to ensure that when you graduate you will have a broad knowledge of the different periods and areas of literary study.

Up to 40 of your total 120 credits for this year can be made up by choosing one or more free choice course unit(s). When choosing from the free choice list, you are permitted to take up to 20 credits worth of first year course units. You may not take any third year course units.

Ideally, you should have 60 credits in each semester, but when choosing the course units you wish to take, you must ensure that:

- you have no fewer than 50 credits in either semester;
- you have no more than 70 credits in either semester;
- you have the required minimum of 40 credits from List A, a minimum of 20 credits from List B and no more than 40 credits from List C;
- you have chosen 120 credits in total, even if you are spending all or part of Year 2 on the Worldwide or Erasmus Exchange programmes;
- you have chosen no more or no fewer credits than stated below from each of Lists A, B and C.

NB: Places on Creative Writing course units (i.e. Fiction and Poetry) are allocated by competition. Students interested in taking one of these units will be invited to submit a sample of their writing through an email from the office in spring.
