

Palace Theatre, Manchester,

7 December 2013

The producers of Idina Menzel's sold out Manchester concert bring Broadway leading lady Eden Espinosa (Wicked, Brooklyn) to headline the festive concert Christmas in New York at the Palace Theatre for one night only.

Best known for playing the role of Elphaba in the smash hit musical Wicked on Broadway, in LA and San Francisco to extensive acclaim, Eden is one of Broadway's powerhouse female vocalists of the modern musical era. Her other credits include playing Maureen in the closing Broadway company of RENT, also released on film.

She is joined by a cast of West End stars featuring Tori Allen-Martin (RENT, Hair), Lucy May Barker (Spring Awakening, Sweeney Todd), Andy Coxon (Les Misérables, Rocky Horror Show), Scott Garnham (Les Misérables, I Can't Sing! The X Factor Musical), Luke Kempner (Avenue Q, South Pacific) and Zoe Rainey (Wicked, Hairspray).

Christmas in New York is a multi-layered chocolate box of musical moments. Evoking a magical time of year in a much loved city, this acclaimed celebration of seasonal show tunes and classic carols offers a musical theatre Christmas concert for all ages.

Best Available Seats Now Just £15!

Call the Group Bookings Dept on 0161 245 6666 for your tickets.

Please quote the name of your company when booking. Offer subject to availability. No discounts on Premium Seats. Offer may be withdrawn without prior notice. No discounts or exchanges on tickets already purchased.