

Early Latin and late Latin/Romance: continuity and innovation

Programme

Monday 12 May

12.00 - 12.45 Lunch

12.45 - 13.05 David Langslow
Introduction

13.05 - 13.45 James Clackson
Mine's a half: the language of a Pompeian tavern

13.45 - 14.25 Giuseppe Pezzini
Comic lexicon: an analysis of non-standard words in Plautus and Terence and their linguistic history

14.25 - 15.05 Giovanni Galdi
On coepi/incipio + infinitive: some new remarks

15.05 - 15.25 Tea

15.25 - 16.05 Wolfgang De Melo
Early Latin dare + ad = late Latin dare + ad?

16.05 - 16.45 Peter Kruschwitz
Aetas dulcius melle. Forms of Comparison in the Carmina Latina Epigraphica

16.45 - 17.25 Brigitte Bauer
The development of the comparative in Latin texts

18.30 Drinks at the Palace Hotel

19.15 Dinner at the Palace Hotel

Tuesday 13 May

9.00 - 9.40 Lieven Danckaert
Variation and change in the Latin analytic passive: empirical and methodological considerations

9.40 - 10.20	Philip Burton The analytic passive in early and later Latin
10.20 - 11.00	Stelios Panayotakis Expressions of time in early and late Latin: the case of habet annos ex quo
11.00 - 11.20	Coffee
11.20 - 12.00	Anna Chahoud Quid ego ago? Che faccio? The deliberative indicative in early Latin
12.00 - 12.40	Gerd Haverling On the use of habeo and the perfect participle in earlier and in later Latin
12.40 - 13.30	Lunch
13.30 - 14.10	Marius Jøhndal Long-distance reflexives from early to late Latin
14.10 - 14.50	Philomen Probert & Eleanor Dickey The distribution of relative-correlative sentences: by chronology, genre, or both?
14.50 - 15.30	Hilla Halla-Aho The nominativus pendens from early to late Latin
15.30 - 15.45	James Adams Concluding remarks
15.45 - 16.15	Tea