

Weekly Digests April 2015

April 23 2015

Pride Sports, together with LGBT sports clubs in Manchester, are organising - throughout the month of May - open doors (free) access to training sessions on a range of sports:

Fencing, Cricket, Rugby League, Rugby Union, Softball, Football, Swimming, Basketball, Squash, Badminton, Running, Tennis, Track & Field (throws, sprints, middle distance running) Volleyball and Waterpolo

Registration and participation for new members is free. You can do as little or as much as you like - but the more sports and sessions you take part in the better the prize! If you fancy trying a new sport remember or do a bit of cross-training just join us. See all info and register at: <http://www.pridegames.org.uk/sports-may/>

The Opening party will be on 1st May - we have booked Cafe Muse in Oxford Road from 7pm to 11pm. You can find out more or register at this point too. Entry to the party is also free.

Anna Verges | Pride Sports | anna@pridesports.org.uk

IDAHO Event

We have found a venue to screen the film 'Pride' to mark our IDAHOT celebrations!

The date is to be confirmed – but will be either Thursday 14 May (5pm) or Monday 18 May (6pm) in the John Casken Theatre which is part of the Martin Harris Centre

Volunteer needed to co-ordinate this (some help with the event publicity) but mainly on the evening itself to launch the event and 'press play'! ☺

Please let me know if you can help! lgbt@manchester.ac.uk

Stonewall Questionnaire

Still looking for people to contribute to the Stonewall questionnaire! It would require working with the team, concentrating on a specific area of the questionnaire (full details were in the last meeting notes) lgbt@manchester.ac.uk

PINK BOX

Our community partners LGBT Youth Centre are looking for donations to their 'Pink Box' campaign. The Pink Box competition and Being Proud awards are held every year. They encourage LGBT young people in the North West to celebrate LGBT history month by raising awareness and responding through creative project. The Being Proud awards are also opened and everyone is invited to come together at an event marking IDAHO in May. This year's event is on 16th May from 1:30pm at the New Business School, MMU. Financial donations help us to cover the cost of trophies, prize money, travel and refreshments. You can make a quick donations via <https://localgiving.com/donation/lgbtyouth> (just quote UOM PinkBox) in the comments so they know where it's from ☺ Let's try and give them £100!