Basaglia and Lacan

Public lecture and discussion

8 March, 2-4 P.M.

Ellen Wilkinson Building, A3.7

Alvise Sforza Tarabochia (Kent) will be speaking about Basaglia and Lacan (the topic of his recent book 'Psychiatry, Subjectivity, Community: Franco Basaglia and Biopolitics') with responses by Daniel Magalhães Goulart (Universidade de Brasilia) and Ian Parker (Manchester Psychoanalytic Matrix).

Franco Basaglia (1924-1980) was an Italian psychiatrist, best remembered for his commitment to the reform of psychiatric institutions and laws in Italy, and a clinical practice that was informed by twentieth-century theory, including the work of existentialist philosophers and Michel Foucault.

Co-organised with the Manchester Psychoanalytic Matrix
