Knowledge Transfer Partnerships

What is KTP?

Knowledge Transfer Partnerships (KTP) are a three way relationship between the graduate, university and the company. This unique opportunity allows a graduate to be based in a company whilst tapping into the expertise and support of the university, to deliver a strategic project that embeds knowledge within the company.

What you can expect when you join our exciting programme

- ◆ You will be responsible for owning and leading a challenging commercial project that directly impacts the business.
- ◆ You will have the opportunity to influence and deliver significant commercial outcomes and be a champion of change on a high impact project.
- ◆ We will provide you with a £2k per annum dedicated training budget tailored to your personal development.

What we require from you

- ◆ We require people who have the ability to articulate technical and complex information and work with senior stakeholders from day one.
- ◆ You will be able to build rapport quickly and develop long term relationships.
- ◆ You will enjoy challenging the status quo, solving problems and being able to make a difference straight away.
