Final thesis access level

Thesis access requirements

The University of Manchester is committed to ensuring as wide an audience as possible can access and read the outputs of its research and scholarship. The University supports the principles of Open Access and the efforts of its researchers to disseminate their research findings as widely as possible.

University policy requires that your final thesis must be made Open Access via the University's repository no longer than 12 months after submission, unless an exception to this policy is required for reasons of sponsorship or sensitive content. This aligns with the University's Publications Policy, which applies to all students and employees of the University.

Selected access level ?

You have selected the following access level for your final thesis

Open Access with 5 year embargo

Restriction reason

Contractual restrictions imposed by sponsor

Supervisor approval status

Pending

Preferred access level has already been selected, when completing examination submission
