

Universities: space, place, community

Programme

9.30	Registration, tea and coffee	Great Hall, Sackville Street Building
10.00	Keynote – Peter Scott, Professor of Higher Education Studies, University College London	Great Hall, Sackville Street Building
11.00	Parallel sessions
	Paper session 1 - Engaging communities            Brokering knowledge, shaping communities: the roles of museums in the history of universities  Chiara Zuanni &amp; Sandra Kemp Kids on campus: transforming the academy through widening participation in situ?  John H. McKendrick &amp; Julie Brown Settling in the Community: The Spaces of the University Settlement Movement  Lucinda Matthews-Jones	Great Hall, Sackville Street Building
	Paper session 2 - Institution building            What's in a Name? New Universities, History and Identity  Keith Vernon 'Like a present of an elephant to a day labourer': The architectural symbolism of Durham Castle and the new University of Durham  Matthew Andrews A period of redefinition: Expansion at Swansea University	D35, Sackville Street Building

	Jay Rees 'Be the counsell of the burgh of Glasgow': Thomas Hutcheson's Bequest, Civic Identity and the University of Glasgow. Lawrence Mills
12.40	Lunch	Great Hall, Sackville Street Building
13.40	Paper session 3 – Universities and cities The Kaiser-Wilhelms Universität: a modern university in the heart of the city Delphine Issenmann Hybrid Space, Authoritarian Place: The Complexities of Yale / NUS College in Singapore Dr. Jason Luger Participatory heritage, spatial politics and the development of two city universities Clare Melhuish, Dean Sully, Henric Benesch, Ingrid Martins Holmberg	Great Hall, Sackville Street Building
15.00	Tea and coffee	Great Hall, Sackville Street Building
15.20	Paper session 4 – University communities Enriched environments and convivial exchanges? Examining the conduciveness of Oxbridge's semi-social spaces to academic leadership and development Linda Evans Place, power, and heterotopia: students of faith and location on campus Paul Smith	Great Hall, Sackville Street Building
16.20	Discussion	Great Hall, Sackville Street Building
17.00	Close	