Name of collection	Elouise Edwards Collection
Donor name	Elouise Edwards
Type of collection	Donated collection (fonds)
Dates of creation	1969-1999
Extent	5 boxes
Name of creator	Elouise Edwards MBE
Background to the collection	This collection consists of the papers of Elouise Edwards. Elouise was born in 1932 in Guyana, South America. She travelled to England in 1961 to join her husband Beresford Edwards. They settled in Manchester and soon became active in the struggle against inequality and racism that existed at that time. They challenged racist attitudes and campaigned for the needs of people from overseas. This developed into a lifelong fight for equality.
Quick description	Much of the material relates to the many projects that Elouise was involved with during the 1970s, 80s & 90s. This includes her work at the Family Advice Centre in Moss Side and her role as a prominent community activist.
Detail of content	The collection consists of reports, leaflets, letters, newspaper cuttings, photographs and interviews. Special items include issues of locally produced newspaper Moss Side News , reports and interviews around the uprisings in Moss Side in 1981 and a Moss Side and Hulme photographic collection.
Related material	Roots Oral History Project, located in the Local Studies of the Race Relations Library (MAN/Hi.3/NOB) and Shattered Illusions (MAN.HI.3/LAW) an autobiographical account written by an interviewee in the Roots Oral History Project .
