

Faculty of Humanities PGR Induction

Venue - Whitworth Hall (Number 50 on the Campus map)

Tuesday 18 September 2018, 3.30pm – 5:15pm with a social event until 6:30pm

Starting a doctoral degree can be a daunting experience. At The University of Manchester we understand just how different the doctorate is from your previous study. Consequently, we have put in place a structured induction programme to help smooth the transition into doctoral level research and prepare you for the journey ahead.

Time	Session and Speaker
3.30pm	Welcome to The University of Manchester Professor Stuart Jones (Associate Dean of PGR)
3.40pm	PGR Student Representative Bee Hughes
3.50pm	IT Services Mr Cliff Butau
4.00pm	Research IT Dr Gillian Sinclair (Service Development Manager)
4.10pm	The University of Manchester Library and PURE Rosie Higman (Research Data Librarian) Laura Turner (Research Information and Systems Officer)
4.30pm – 5.15pm	Faculty Support: Tracking your progress through eProg Anusarin Lowe (Postgraduate Research Officer) PGR Placements Dr Louise Davies (PGR Placements and Partnerships Officer) Researcher Development Dr Ian Fairweather and Dr Kelly Pickard-Smith (Researcher Development Team) Wellbeing Speaker to be confirmed
5.15pm – 6.30pm	PGR Social: Meet your fellow 1st years

This is a Faculty-wide welcome event during which you will be given a brief overview of the wealth of services available to you and includes presentations from key people who will provide support throughout your doctoral journey.

During the social there will be a number of stands around the venue in which you can pick up useful information and speak to the presenters and representatives from a variety of service providers and groups.