Collection name / Title	Ann Adeyemi Collection
Accession number(s)
Level of Description	Collection
Collection type	Donated collection (fonds)
Date range	1928-1990s
Extent	1 box
Name of creator(s)	Ann Adeyemi
Administrative / Biographical history	Of particular significance is the fact that Ann's grandmother was White Irish and her grandfather Black Liberian. They met in Salford in the early part of the twentieth century. Ann's mixed race mother was born in 1920. Ann's father was born in Liberia but grew up in Sierra Leone. Ann was born in Manchester in 1951. In her early life she lived in Cheetham Hill and Ashton. Ann qualified as a teacher, taught History, English and Drama and worked in London on anti-racism project. She has also been an Inspector of Arts and Humanities in Wandsworth. Ann currently (2014) lives in Blackburn.
Scope and content	Most of the material pertains to Ann's life, covering her childhood, education, social and family life. There is a small amount of material relating to her parents, including her father's passport and discharge papers. Types of material include photographs, correspondence, newspaper clippings, educational transcripts, official documentation, religious items, arts ephemera (theatre and music) and books.
Immediate source of acquisition or transfer	Ann Adeyemi donated this material to the Race Relations Resource Centre in 2010. She had suffered a brain haemorrhage in 2008 and wanted to ensure that her and her family's history were recorded for posterity. Alongside the archive donation Julie Devonald at the Resource Centre carried out a project with students at the University of Manchester to document Ann's life, including interviewing her and creating a poster about her life.

System of arrangement	The material is organised into a number of series (Note: some series only contain one item, listed at series and item level): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Photographs 1930s-1940s</li> <li>Photographs 1940s-1960s</li> <li>Photographs 1970s-1980s</li> <li>Photographs 1980s-1990s</li> <li>Correspondence</li> <li>Newspaper Clippings</li> <li>Educational Materials</li> <li>Educational Transcripts (De La Salle College, Manchester)</li> <li>Educational Transcripts (Notre Dame College of Education, Liverpool)</li> <li>Educational Transcripts (Bury Convent Grammar School)</li> <li>Educational Transcripts (St. Mary's Junior School)</li> <li>Official Documentation for James Adeyemi</li> <li>Correspondence</li> <li>Religious Certificate</li> <li>Handwritten Inventory</li> <li>Theatre Ephemera</li> <li>Signed Photographs</li> <li>Miscellaneous</li> <li>Oral History</li> </ul>
