Making a will ensures that the things you leave behind go to the people and charities that you care about. It's a huge reassurance to family and friends and it's not nearly as difficult as you might think.

If you've never got round to making a will, now is the perfect time.

JMW Solicitors are offering you the chance to have a will written and help Manchester Art Gallery raise funds for its schools and community programmes at the same time. For a donation of £95 to the gallery (or £150 for two wills) solicitors from the Manchester firm will prepare a basic will.

Just give us a call or email to book an appointment. Appointments are on the half-hour throughout the day and will each take around an hour. If you have time we'd also love to offer a free half-hour tour with one of our curators or learning team prior to your appointment where you will be able to hear more about the gallery's activities. Once you book we will send some further information including a pre-meeting questionnaire and details of all the information you'll need to bring with you.

Please call Jo Beggs on 07917 553 040 or email jo.beggs@manchester.ac.uk to book an appointment. If you can't make this date but would be interested, please let us know. We'll also be offering future sessions at The Whitworth and Manchester Museum.

If you wish to discuss leaving a legacy gift to Manchester Art Gallery, or any other charity, we will be happy to discuss this, but there is no obligation to do so.
