LEARN THROUGH RESEARCH

Manchester is a university built upon research. We're ranked fifth in the UK for research power.* For you, this means the chance to learn in an environment where academic enquiry seeks to truly change the world.

*2014 Research Excellence Framework

We put learning through research at the centre of our teaching. Discoveries that hit the headlines one day could feature in one of your lectures the next. On many of our courses you'll have the chance to learn research skills – teaching you not only how to answer, but how to question.

www.manchester.ac.uk/learningthroughresearch

As a university where social responsibility is at the core of everything we do, we're committed to improving the lives of people around the world through our research.

How can we address global inequalities?

We partner with governments, charities, corporations and NGOs to bring about a fairer world, directly influencing policies that make positive changes for people affected by poverty and inequality.

How can we change the material world?

Manchester brought the world the revolutionary two-dimensional material graphene. From jet engines to water filtration, we're devising remarkable ways to transform current products using advanced materials.

How can we fight cancer?

Our work with the NHS, charities and the people of Manchester is fighting cancer on all fronts: getting to grips with the disease at a molecular level, testing personalised treatments and alleviating its physical, emotional and economic effects through nursing, psychology and policy work.

How can we pioneer global energy systems for the future?

We're enhancing the efficiency and viability of energy sources such as solar, wind, tidal and bioenergy. We run the UK's most advanced academic nuclear research capability, and we blend engineering and social sciences to find solutions to energy demand.

How can we create a more sustainable world?

We're at the forefront of the bio-industrial revolution, using biological resources such as plants, algae, fungi, marine life and micro-organisms to change how we manufacture materials and create next-generation chemicals for industrial and health-care needs.

ASSESSMENT

This brochure was printed in 2018 for the purposes of the 2019 intake. It has therefore been printed in advance of course starting dates and for this reason, course information may be amended prior to you applying for a place. There are a number of reasons why changes to course information and/or published term dates may need to be made prior to you applying for a place – more details can be found on our website. Prospective students are therefore reminded that they are responsible for ensuring, prior to applying to study, that they review up-to-date course information by searching for the relevant course at:
www.manchester.ac.uk/undergraduate/courses.
