

Pharmacy Education Conference Programme

Excellence in Pharmacy Education

Monday 24th June 2019

University of Manchester, Stopford Building

Timing	Activity	Venue
9:30	Coffee and Registration	Stopford Building, Mezzanine
10.00-10.10	Welcome and Introduction Professor Jayne Lawrence University of Manchester Pharmacy School	Lecture Theatre 1 (1 st floor)
10.10-10.55	Achieving Excellence in the MPharm Dr Anne Boyter University of Strathclyde	Lecture Theatre 1
11.00-11.55	Oral Presentations Session I (Parallel sessions)
	A – Placements	Lecture Theatre 1
	B – IPE	Lecture Theatre 2
	C – Peer led teaching and learning	Lecture Theatre 3
12.00-12.30	Attended Electronic Poster Presentations (Parallel sessions)
	A – Curriculum design and assessment	Lecture Theatre 1
	B – Learner-focused enquiry	Lecture Theatre 2
	C – Learning in practice	Lecture Theatre 4 (2 nd floor, opposite lift entrance)
	D – Teaching innovation	Lecture Theatre 3
12.30-1.30	Lunch, Networking and Posters	1st Floor Common Room & I.P.E. Suite (Ground floor, Room G.183/G.381)
1.30-2.30	Oral Presentations Session II (Parallel sessions)
	D – Assessment and feedback	Lecture Theatre 1
	E – Teaching methods	Lecture Theatre 2
	F – Innovation	Lecture Theatre 3
2.35 -4.00	Workshops (Parallel sessions)
	A – 'Simulate to Stimulate' an interactive workshop demonstrating effective use of Simulation Based Education. Dr Michael Leech, Mr Adam Radford - University of Portsmouth & Ms Lyn Hanning - University of Bath.	I.P.E. Suite (Ground floor, Room G.183/G.38)
	B –Turning learners from vacant to engaged. Bob Morris, Liverpool John Moores University	Peter Noyce Clinical Skills Suite (Ground floor, Room G.123)
	C – Evolving postgraduate education and training to address the changing landscape of pharmacy practice. Lesley Grimes - CPPE; Matt Smith & Karen Hodson, Cardiff University.	Training Room (Ground floor, Room G.223)
	D – Why do we teach pharmacists biochemistry? David Morgan, Keele University	Lecture Theatre 3 (1st floor)
3.00	Coffee	Workshop room
	Workshops (continued)
4.00	Stronger together: collaborative working to shape future pharmacy education and training. Gail Fleming Royal Pharmaceutical Society	Lecture Theatre 1
4.30	Close	