Contact:	If you have any questions about this structure, please contact the programme administrator for Classics and Ancient History (salc-pgt@manchester.ac.uk)

Please note:

When choosing the course units you wish to take you must ensure you choose:

180 credits – Full Time students

60 credits in the first year (including CAHE60510 The Study of the Ancient World, and, normally, at least 15 credits of Greek or Latin language) and 120 credits in the second year (including the dissertation) – Part-time students

Students must choose either 15 or 30 credits of Latin and/or Greek language, at an appropriate level. If you have previously studied Latin or Greek, but not at the University of Manchester, you should consult the Programme Director before enrolling on any language unit, so that we can ensure that you are enrolled at the correct level of language.

[Note: a student who has already reached ‘Advanced 3’ or equivalent in both Latin and Greek will, by arrangement with the Programme Director, normally be permitted to replace this Language requirement with a ‘Directed Reading’ unit (CAHE60001/2) with an appropriate linguistic focus (e.g.: papyrology; palaeography; textual criticism.)]

Helpful hints

- The semester a course is taught in is identified by the last digit in the course code. A zero identifies the course unit is taught over both semesters.
- Students should aim to spread their course load evenly over Semesters 1 and 2; if you would like to take more than 45 credits of optional courses in one semester, please consult the programme director.
- More information about each of the course units listed below can be found here: <http://www.manchester.ac.uk/study/masters/courses/list/07915/ma-classics-and-ancient-history/course-details/#course-profile>
