Using Publish to view your personalised timetable

When you log in to Publish it defaults to the current week (with today highlighted) or current day view (Publish is mobile compatible so will adjust accordingly depending on the device you use to access it).

Changing the View

In the Desktop view you can change the view to see Day, Week or Month view using the buttons in the top left:

The button with three lines changes your view from a grid view to a list view of upcoming events from today onwards:

You can use the drop down next to the date to select a specific date or week you want to view:
Or you can use the Arrow keys to scroll through days and weeks accordingly:

Clicking on the button 'Today' returns you to the current view.

The options are similar in the Mobile view, though they might be shortened or hidden behind other options depending on the size of your screen.

Subscribe to your Calendar

You can subscribe to your Publish timetable in whatever local calendar app you use – for example Office365, Google Calendar, Outlook, etc.

To do this simply click on the 'Subscribe' button in the top right hand corner (on mobile devices this is just a download icon):
 or

and follow the on screen instructions:
