MANCHESTER 1824

The University of Manchester

Human and Digital Development

Global Development Institute Open Day

Dr. Jaco Renken

MANCHESTER
1824
The University of Manchester

MANCHESTER 1824

The University of Manchester

Postgraduate Teaching in GDI

Social Development

Management, Governance and Development

Development Economics, Policy and Planning

Human and Digital Development

- MSc Human Resource Development
- MSc ICT for Socio-Economic Development
- MSc Management and Information Systems: Change and Development

MANCHESTER 1824

The University of Manchester

Early cohort of students from the Department of Overseas Training (1958)

MANCHESTER 1824

The University of Manchester

The Manchester Baby was the world's first stored-program computer (21 June 1948)

MANCHESTER 1824

The University of Manchester

Development

HDD

Digital Technology

People

MANCHESTER 1824

The University of Manchester

HDD Programmes

MSc Human Resource Development

- Policies and practices of human resource development or management in the context of developing or transitional countries.
- Develop a range of skills associated with human resource development or management in public, private and non-profit organisations.

MSc ICTs for Development

- Understand the process of socio-economic development, and the role of information and of ICTs in the development process.
- Gain skills in the effective planning, development, implementation and management of ICT for development initiatives.

MSc Management and Information Systems

- Understand the roles of management of information, of information technology and of information systems in organisations.
- Develop new knowledge and skills to help in the effective planning, development, implementation and management of information systems, and in the effective management and change of organisations.