

Library Research Services

How can we help?

The Library Research Services team provide a range of expert services to support you at each stage of your research project, from arranging Open Access to managing your research data, maximising the visibility and availability of world-class research and data from the University of Manchester.

Research Services Website

The Research Services website gathers together information about all the services the Library provides for researchers. If you have a question, you can find contact details for the team here, or you can use the Library Chat feature to send us an instant message.
