

PROGRAMME STRUCTURE

MSc in International Human Resource Management and Comparative Industrial Relations

2026-2027

(Click on the course unit title for the course unit description)

Semester 1
Four core course units:
CODE	TITLE	CREDIT RATING
BMAN60261	Research Methods in Human Resource Management and Employment Relations	15
BMAN70051	Multinationals and Comparative Employment Systems	15
BMAN70231	HRM: Strategy and Practice	15
BMAN71911	Comparative Industrial Relations	15
One elective from:
CODE	TITLE	CREDIT RATING
BMAN72391	Industrial Relations	15
Semester 2
Two core courses units:
CODE	TITLE	CREDIT RATING
BMAN60992	International Human Resource Management	15
BMAN75332	International and Comparative Employment Regulation and Law	15
Two electives from:
CODE	TITLE	CREDIT RATING
BMAN71242	HRM: Context and Organisation	15
BMAN72382	Equality, Diversity and Inclusion	15
BMAN73302	Human Resource Management in Asia	15
MSc Dissertation (60 credits):
BMAN71930 MSc Dissertation in International Human Resource Management and Comparative Industrial Relations

Students can take either four or five modules in semester one and either three or four in semester two, with a total of eight modules being taken for the full year.