

LLB Law with Criminology

First Year

Compulsory Units

Title	Credits
Introduction to Law and Legal Skills	30
Criminal Law	30
Law of Obligations	30
Crime and Society	10
Criminological Research Methods	20

Second Year

Compulsory Units

Title	Credits
Land Law	30
Public Law	30
Policing and the Police	20

And either:

Understanding Punishment	20
Modelling Criminological Data	20
Explaining Crime and Deviance	20

Optional Units

And 20 credits from among the following course units:

Law in a Global Context	20
Principles and Practice of Commercial Law	20
Human Rights	20
Law in Practice	20

Final Year

Optional Units

40 credits from among the final year Criminology course units

AND

80 credits from among the final year Law course units (or in place of one of these course units, students may take one 20 credit second year Law course unit)

Examples include:

Principles of Commercial Law, Human Rights, Environmental Law, Company Law, Competition Law in an International Context, Mental Health Law, Sociology of Law, Law, Gender and Sexuality, European Union Law, Equity and Trusts Law, Contemporary Issues in EU Law, Law in Practice, Criminal Evidence, Legal Tech and Access to Justice, Law in Practice, Constitutional Reform, Miscarriages of Justice, Criminology and Mass Violence, Victims, Crime and Justice, Personality Disorder and Crime.

If you wish to satisfy the professional requirements for the academic stage of training for the Bar Standards Board, you must take:

Equity and Trusts Law
European Union Law

Information about the Bar

Students who wish to satisfy the Academic Stage of Training for the Bar Standards Board should note that the following Law subjects are required:

Introduction to Law and Legal Skills
Contract Law
Law of Torts
Criminal Law
Public Law
Land Law
Equity and Trusts Law
European Union Law

Students will need to take Equity and Trusts Law and European Union Law in their final year in order to satisfy these requirements.

Students take 120 credits per year

These are examples of course units offered in 2021 / 22 and are subject to change. You will be updated when they are confirmed for 2022 / 23.