Or up to 60 credits of free options. You are permitted to take a maximum of 60 credits of free options across your degree programme; therefore if you have already taken a 20 credit free option in second year, you are only permitted to take a further 40 credits of free options in final year.

Information about the Bar

Students who wish to satisfy the Academic Stage of Training for the Bar Standards Board should note that the following Law subjects are required:

- Introduction to Law and Legal Skills
- Contract Law
- Law of Torts
- Criminal Law
- Public Law
- Land Law
- Equity and Trusts Law
- European Union Law

Students will need to take Equity and Trusts Law and European Union Law in their final year in order to satisfy these requirements.
