Facts

- Portuguese is:
 - the 6th most spoken language in the world
 - the 2nd most spoken language in South America
 - and the most spoken language in the Southern Hemisphere
- Brazil is the largest country in South America in both size and population
- Portuguese, Spanish, French and Italian are all Romance languages
- They're called Romance languages because they come from Latin, and were formed after the fall of the Roman Empire
- The days of the week in Portuguese are different from other Romance languages because of a powerful Archbishop in 6th century Portugal
 - He believed the original days, named after Roman gods, were disrespectful to Catholic belief

Mystery Drawing!

1. Answer each of the trivia questions using what you've learned so far about the Portuguese language. Each of your answers correlates with a feature on the mystery face. Use these answers to create the face on the other side of this paper. When you're done, take a look at the Mystery Drawing Solution and see what you got right! Good luck!
